If you make any pretense toward being a good law abiding citizen register. The Law says you should register. Respect the law.

New York stationers are now displaying the latest thing in marriage certificates, with divorce coupons attached to be clipped off as desired.

The mayor's message is a long one, but Mr. Stoddard is known to be a firm believer in Roosevelt and perhaps he has dropped into the Roosevelt message system.

Investigating committees rarely scale the heights on which corporation grafters dwell. Those fellows throw down too many rocks stamped with the dollar mark.

A man who is not smart enough to see the necessity of registering, is certainly not smart enough to vote intelligently on election day, and as a matter of fact should not be allowed to do so.

There is much food for reflection contained in Mayor Stoddard's message. Every citizen of La Grande should read the message once, then read it again, and think it over awhile and then read it again.

To promote and to secure piety, higher, nobler, healthier living, public spirit, filial piety, honest business methods and patriotism, are duties owed by the newspaper to its patrons and their families.

If every council meeting throughout the year is as well attended as the one last night the councilmen might have reason to believe that they are the center of attraction. They needn't worry; in a few weeks the new will wear off and there will be few to disturb their deliberation.

Now that the registration books are down town, there is absolutely no excuse any one can reasonably offer for not registering. The time is short and every voter should register at once. It is simply a matter of business and duty.

UNDER NEW OWNERSHIP

A. C. MacLennan wishes to again inform the citizens of La Grande and vicinity that the well known Red Cross drug store of this city is being conducted under an entirely new system of business methods. The new proprietor of this store has had several years experience as manager of the largest retail prescription drug store in the middle west namely in Omaha, Nebraska and is making a specialty of accuracy and promptness as is noticeable in large city stores.

The stock of goods and pharmaceuticals have been thoroughly investigated and a large and varied assortment of all lines has been purchased so as to accommodate everyone at all times. Your patronage is appreciated, we want to show you our system.

It purrs the oil of life into your system. It warms you up and starts the life blood circulating. That's what Hollister's Rocky Mountain does. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets.
