Hardware and crockery.

OFFICER WAS CALLED SOONER

The report yesterday regarding the death of Fred Savare contained a statement from which the inference could be drawn that the man was allowed to remain on the table some two hours before the night officer was called. Mr. Waldon, the officer on duty, called at this office this afternoon and stated that he had been called to the saloon about 1:15 o'clock which he believes was about ten minutes after the man had been taken off the street to the saloon.

DIED

J. H. McQuire died at Hot Lake last night of Bright's disease and was brought to La Grande today and placed in the undertaking establishment of Henry & Carr. The body will be shipped to the home of his family at Seattle tonight. Deceased was a stockbuyer, and had just shipped a load of horses which he bought in the vicinity of this city. He was taken seriously ill at Hot Lake and died soon after. Mrs. McQuire passed through the city last night enroute to Seattle.

ATTENTION VOTERS

UNDER NEW OWNERSHIP

A. C. MacLennan wishes to again inform the citizens of La Grande and vicinity that the well known Red Cross drug store of this city is being conducted under an entirely new system of business methods. The new proprietor of this store has had several years experience as manager of the largest retail prescription drug store in the middle west namely in Omaha, Nebraska and is making a specialty of accuracy and promptness as is noticeable in large city stores. The stock of goods and pharmaceuticals have been thoroughly investigated and a large and varied assortment of all lines has been purchased so as to accommodate everyone at all times.

Your patronage is appreciated, we want to show you our system.

STRICT ATTENTION

Is given to orders and there are no vexations, delays due to misunderstandings. Each patron gets precisely what he calls for and as far possible all little individual tastes are considered.

There is no better popular priced restaurant within many miles. The food is excellent and well prepared and is put before the guest in an appetizing way.

TWENTY-EIGHT CENTS FOR BUTTER FAT

The Blue Mountain Creamery company is paying twenty-eight cents a pound for butter fat. This is a good price and together with the fact that the Blue Mountain Creamery company absolutely guarantees the safe return of all cream cans, and therefore there can be no loss from that source, the patrons of this creamery have an advantage over those dealing with other companies.
