SOCIETY

Mesdames E. W. Bartlett, Jay Van Buren, Chas. Norris, and J. J. Carr entertained the Kaffee Klatch most enjoyably last night. High Five was the game, and the prizes, a hand painted plate and a book, went to Mrs. Al Andrews and Dr. L. D. Reavis. The refreshments consisted of fruit salad, lettuce sandwiches, cake, coffee and pineapple sherbet. The following were present:

Messrs and Mesdames Clarehice Crawford, E. E. Bragg, L. D. Reavis, Guy Byrkit, F. E. Moore, J. M. Berry, Al Andrews, W. J. Snodgrass, Frank Lilly.

Mesdames J. H. Aikine, Z. P. Eubank, N. Molitor, Fred Swaney, Misses Squires, Margaret Porter, Mabel Williams, Maud Snodgrass, Felicie Lyne, Moina Aikine, Messrs Crawford and Claycomb.

The Neighborhood Club meets next Tuesday afternoon in their rooms at the Commercial Club. The subject will be Japan, and Mrs. Rachel Worstell will be the leader.

SOMETHING NEW

The Blue Mountain Creamery Company has purchased the milk route for J. W. McAllister known as the Spring Brook Dairy, taking possession April 1st.

The Company has contracted of their supply of milk from the Spring Brook Dairy and the same will be delivered to the Creamery every morning when it will be cooled and bottled and from there distributed among its customers. Sweet cream and butter milk can also be had at any time from their wagon. Mr. Ben Noyes will be in charge of the wagon and will endeavor to give all customers prompt service and courteous treatment.

The Blue Mountain Creamery Company respectfully solicits a continuation of the patronage received by the Spring Brook Dairy, as they guarantee to give the same high grade Jersey milk they have been receiving in the past, prices for milk remaining the same as before. Give your order to the driver or phone Main 44. BLUE MOUNTAIN CREAMERY CO.

THE BEST EVER

Do you desire to look upon something that will make your heart rejoice, expand your soul, and every drop of blood in your veins flow with renewed vigor? If you do, just stop on your way as you pass up Adams Avenue, and look into the windows at the Newlin Drug Company, and view the magnificent, grand and beautiful display of flies, rods, lines and other fishing paraphernalia displayed therein. It is one of the most elaborate beautiful, and choicest ever seen in this city, and could Sir Isaac Walton or Christopher North, see them they would dance with joy.

The flies are most exquisite, the rods superb, and the lines of the finest texture and as the fishing season is here and you look at the truly beautiful display you will imagine you are upon the mountain streams where

The soft breeze through the branches swish
Where the poet strings his lyre
And the liar strings his fish.

LOCAL ITEMS

There will be no dance at the Commercial gymnasium tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Moore of North Powder are in the city today.

M. J. Lawrence of Baker City transacted business in the city yesterday.

J. W. Weaver came over from Elgin last evening.

James J. Hurley of Imbler was in the city yesterday.

Mr. Clark Adams of Huntington is in the city visiting friends and relatives.

Walter Pierce left last night for San Francisco to be absent about ten days.

Mrs. Jay Thompson of Pleasant Valley, is visiting with friends in La Grande this week.

Ben Brown came up today to file his petition with the county clerk. He is a candidate for county commissioner, before the Republican voters.

Mrs. O. T. Galloway and son Walter who have been visiting relatives in this city for the past two weeks, leave tomorrow morning for their home in Union.

Mrs. E. K. Funk and family returned to their home in Fremont, Utah, after spending the past year at the Ed. Stringham home.

Rev. Meridith, the new pastor of the Methodist church is due to arrive from New York City this evening and will hold services morning and evening Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Dickey arrived this morning from McPherson, Kansas to visit their brother Mr. J. W. Dickey, for a few days when they expect to leave for their home on the Sound.

Ralph Nebler was taken to Portland last night to be operated upon for appendicitis. He was accompanied by his father who will remain with him until after the operation.

The city is filled with farmers this afternoon. The recent rains made them all smile. They know that a bountiful harvest is headed this way and when the farmers are prosperous, so are the rest of us.

Geo. Childers has packed his household goods and will leave for California with his family within the next few days. Mr. Childers has not decided which part of the state he will locate in. He has lived in La Grande for forty years.

James Snodgrass has resigned his position as assistant secretary of the Commercial Club to accept his former position with Romig & Staples. T. J. Ormond, on the first of the month will succeed Mr. Snodgrass in the Club.

MUST MOVE ON

A man may graft and a man may lie,
And a man may puff and blow;
But you can't get trade sitting in the shade,
Waiting for business to grow.

A BIG TURNOVER

Sheriff T. B. Johnson yesterday turned over to County Treasurer Frawley $78,673.50 of the tax money so far collected. The total collection up to date foots up to $92,583.16.

It is evident that the citizens of this county are paying their taxes promptly and many are taking advantage of the rebate. As Mr. Johnson did not begin collecting until some fifteen days later than last year, he has certainly made a creditable showing.

BALL GAME TOMORROW

Tomorrow is the opening baseball day. All preliminary arrangements have been completed and many new men will be tried out against the Scrubs. An entrance fee of twenty-five cents will be charged. Manager Heisner wishes to explain that in requiring this fee, they hope to do away with a subscription list. The team has several expense accounts to settle and if they can raise the necessary amount by charging admission to these practice games, it will be more satisfactory.

THROWN FROM HORSE AND DIES

Funeral services over the body of Edna Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Clark, of Union was held yesterday afternoon. Last Tuesday Miss Edna was riding a horse to water, and on the return trip, she lost control of the animal and was thrown from the horse in such a way as to fracture her skull, which caused her death the next day. Deceased was 15 years of age.

Mrs. Geo. Palmer is expected home Sunday from California.
