Albany N. Y. April 4.- The New York Highway Convention opened its annual 1906. session here today. Owing to the fact Mrs. E. E. Crawford Mr. Milton L Bowen that the State Legislature has passed the Floy $50,000,000 State Bonding law, which opens a new ere for road building in this state, the present session is of the greatest importance. Road supervisors from all parts of the state ara in attendance and also many county officials interested in the good roads movement.

The six previous conventions have been held in the latter part of January or in the beginning of February. because the chief purpose was to urge liberal and edequate appropriations of money for the money system roads, and the construction of the main highways under the two State aid acts. But this year, with $50,-000,000 at the disposal of the Legislature, the situation is very much changed. since the funds are so large, and the legislation desired so important that the Executive Committee considered it better to call the convention for a later date. The the plain provisions of the statute, which The committee has submitted a report containing important recommendations which will be thoroughly discussed in the convention, to furnish the basis for the legislation which will be demanded from the Legislature in the next session.

The committee recommends that the legislation for the distribution of the $50-000,000 bond issue be made in one act so that the comptroller may sell the bonds FORESTERS OF AMERICA—Court from time to time; that the State main-Maid Marion No. 22 meets each Thurs-day night in Redman hall. LAW SUSTAINED The point has been raised in Clackamas county that the requirement of regis tratice is a violation of the secrecy of the ballot in that it discloses the party affiliations of the voter. The question was presented to Attorney General Grawford for his opinion, which he gives, quoting says that no person shall be permitted to vote in a primary election unless he has registered his party affiliation. Therefore if a man refuses to acknowledge himself a member of either the Republican or Demogratic party he will be refused an opportunity to participate in the selection of candidates for either of those parties.
