

THERE WON'T BE NO BUTT

for the "kid" who apes his elders in fondness for smoking if the cigar smoked is a Key West Perfecto. You see the

is so good all the way through, clear to the last half inch, that its smoker is loath to throw even that little bit of fine, free-burning tobacco away. Try a Key West Perfecto and you'll know yourself.

Apropos to Andrew Carnegie's millionaires who seldom laugh, have you ever noticed any one whom poverty made hilariously happy?

It now appears certain that there will be a great meat packing plant established at Portland in the near future. The establishment of a plant costing a million dollars in this state can not fail to have a marked beneficial effect upon the live stock industry throughout the Pacific Northwest.

Talk about the color line. In a murder trial at Waterbury, Conn., the counsel for the defendant objected to six red-haired talesmen on the ground that his client, a swathy Italian, would not be so likely to receive impartial judgment from the men of auburn locks as from those of darker complexion.

The Democrats denounced Lincoln during his life time most bitterly and thirty years afterward claimed his principles as their own. In the case of Roosevelt they are determined not to be so far behind hand. While he is yet in office they are endorsing his doctrines and even claiming him as a Democrat.

A comparison of the reports made by creameries in Oregon with those of the middle west shows that the patrons of Oregon creameries get, on an average for the year through close to four cents per pound more for butter fat than do the patrons of creameries in Minnesota and other great dairy states of the middle west.—Oregon Agriculturist.

When enemies of a bill before congress or before a legislature become solicitous about its constitutionality, friends should take hope. It is the best evidence that the bill is all right and cannot be defeated by a frontal attack. The zeal of railroad parasites to secure a liberal court review clause, in the rate bill now before the Senate, lest the measure be declared unconstitutional by the supreme court, should be ignored. It is an old trick, unworthy of serious consideration.

APPRENTICES WANTED—Inquire of Mrs. J. R. Forrest, the milliner, at once.

A CLEAN SWEEP FOR REFORM

When the election, last November, and still more the reports made by working politicians in the best organized and informed machine in the land, showed that these classes wanted a change, the machine and its leaders changed instantly. A pliant governor was as prompt to call the Legislature in extra session as he had been to find reasons for the vilest excess of the political plunderers of the State. The same Legislature as before met, and in a brief session passed every measure for which reformers had been asking in vain for twenty-five years,—two of them in more drastic form than any one had yet proposed. Save that the Corrupt Practices Act is more precise and severe than any yet passed, except in Connecticut, and the separation and protection of the civil service of Philadelphia more complete than has yet been enacted for an American city, the new legislation follows the general trend of such measures in other States.
