SPORTING EVENTS

DOINGS ON LOCAL AND COAST
RING, TRACK AND DIAMOND

WALLA WALLA'S FIRST GAME.
The much talked of team from Walla Walla went down in defeat to Whitman college last Wednesday in its first game of the season. Gregory the city team twirler was put out of business in the seventh with seven runs chalked to his record. The score was 11 to 2 in favor of the students. If such aggregation of school boys can administer so decisive a defeat, La Grande will have a fair showing against the Walla Wallians next month.

PLEASANT PARTY

A big carry-all loaded down with members of the Damen-kranz rumbled over the hills to May park last night where the occupants took possession of the C. S. Williams home and proceeded to enjoy themselves. The object of the party was on the surprise order but Mrs. Williams refused to be surprised, having heard all about it before the arrival of the would-be surprisers. However the party suffered nothing from this, and in fact it was a decided advantage. The evening was spent with much jollity and finally the merry crowd satisfied their plate as well as furnishing much amusement, by roast-marsh mellows. The finishing touches to the refreshment program came with the announcement of "Hot cakes," and maple syrup.

Those present were: Misses Gertrude Mitchell, Alice McKinlay, Marie Clark, Ada Fowler, Emma Clark, Martie Aldrich, Allie Stephens, Janette Clark, Zada Haney, Mable Williams, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dupes, Mrs. S. D. Crowe, Messers. Mr. Edwards, Mr. Masseo, Mr. MacLendon, Mr. J. R. Smith.

BRICK STRUCTURE STOPS RUNAWAY

The J. W. White delivery wagon made a lively run down depot street last evening and came to a sudden stop when it hit the Arcade saloon corner. The team had started near the Depot and on reaching the corner of Depot and Jefferson Avenue tried to turn down the avenue. However, it failed to make the sharp turn and ran on the side walk saddling the corner of the Arcade saloon. Luckily the corner is of brick and strong enough to withstand the terrible onset. The tongue of the vehicle snapped in two—otherwise there was no damage done the wagon or team.

GYPSIES RELEASED

The three dusky gypsies who were arrested and placed in jail yesterday afternoon for doing palmistry stunts, were released late in the evening and their fines remitted, on the proviso that they start early this morning for another location. They have departed; 'tis well.
