LOCAL ITEMS

Dr. T. R. Monk, of Summerville is in the city today transacting business.

L. E. Stoop, of Elgin, returned this morning from a business trip to Portland. Orvil Hall, a leading business man of Joseph, was in the city the first of the week.

Mrs. James McEwen returned this morning from a visit with her son and daughter at Ferry.

Mrs. C. H. Finn, who has been spending the past winter in Portland, returned home this morning.

L. H. Russel who has been in Chicago for the past six weeks writes that he will return in a few days.

T. B. Woodcock of Boise, Idaho is in the city today. He is connected with a large hide and fur firm at that place.

Leroy Lomax and Will Hutchinson Jr. arrived home from Canada last week where they purchased three sections of land and will go into the stock business on an extensive scale.—Scout.

Mr. Charles Palmer, Mrs. John Palmer and granddaughter, Miss Ruth Palmer, arrived from Baker City on last night's train to attend the celebration of Grandma Palmer's 92d birthday which occurred today.

"Made in Oregon" is going to be a great event in Portland soon. Ralph W. Hoyt is a native son and has become the popular candidate for State Treasurer because he says: "State funds collected in a county must remain on deposit in that county."

Rev. John Dressler whose home is in Nebraska but who came from Payette, Idaho will take charge of the Cove M. E. church. Almost immediately after Mr. Dressler's arrival he was summoned to the burial of his son who lived in Boise with his wife and two children. The members of his church gave him a cordial welcome to his new field on his return to Cove.

Col. F. S. Ivanhoe returned last evening from an extensive trip through Wal-lowa county in the interest of his campaign for district attorney. He states that he is well pleased with the outlook and will get a good vote. He lived so many years in that county and has kept in such close touch with it since that after the tour he has just made he certainly knows the conditions as they exist.

AMUSEMENTS

AROUND THE TOWN

Murray and Mack, the popular purveyors of Irish comedy will be seen this season in an entirely new effort entitled "Around the Town" which has been written with a view to fit their personality. That the author has succeeded in an established fact. It is a story of Irish life in New York City and the complications follow in rapid order. As a laugh producer it is a wonder. Strong specialties, big company, beautiful costumes, full equipment of scenery, a chorus of male and female voices are some of the features of this new production. Monday April 9th Stewards opera house.

RETURN OF THE FAVORITES

It is with the greatest satisfaction that the management announces a return engagement of "The Mack Swain Theater Co." for 5 nights commencing Tuesday April 10th. The Swain Co. is without a doubt the strongest organization of its kind in the west, and in starring the talented and versatile actress Cora King Swain has won the most flattering endorsement of both press and public throughout the entire country and in Vancouver, B. C. Tacoma, Portland and all the large cities has broken all records in attendance and popularity.

Mrs. F. S. Ivanhoe is over from Pendleton to spend Sunday with the family.

THE STRIKE SITUATION UNCHANGED

(Scripps News Association)
Springfield, Ill., April 7.—The end of the first week of the coal strike shows little change. The operators have lost a few adherents. The one hundred mines which have signed represent only one million tons. There are nine hundred thirty two mines in the fifty-four counties, of these 308 produce all but two million tons of the total output of thirty-seven million tons per year.

FINAL CONFERENCE

New York April 6.—The anthracite roads and independent operators met in secret conference today to give their final consideration of the proposition to arbitrate made by President Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers.
