YOUR CASE AND OSTEOPATHY

You say, "I can see how Osteopathy can cure some things, but I do not see how it can help me."

As usual you have never thought of a cause for your trouble. With slight displacement of ligaments, muscles and bones, especially of the spine and ribs, with the nerve and blood supply disturbed thereby, any form of disease may result, depending on the nature of the interference.

The Osteopath can remove this cause in one disease as well as another. The cure then depends on nature's power to repair the damage.

All curable diseases, acute and chronic, have been cured by Osteopathy. The following is a partial list in which marked success has been attained: Tonsillitis, dyspepsia, constipation, diarrhoea, dysentery, appendicitis, ascites, gall stones, cystitis, enlarged prostate, "gravel," anaemia, goitre, dropsy, la grippe, croup, bronchitis, asthma, hay fever, pneumonia, pleurisy, malaria, typhoid and all fevers, measles, erysipelas, paralysis, epilepsy, neuralgia, sciatica, nervous prostration, eczema, St Vitus dance, spinal curvature, impotency of men, milkleg, female diseases and rheumatism (in worst forms); many forms of heart disease, diabetes, Bright's disease, consumption (except in far advanced cases) and eye troubles.

A NEW SONG

Bishop B. McCarter, a railway mail clerk on the Pocatello and Portland R. P. O., has just had published a new song, "The Railway Postal Clerk" which bids fair to become very popular. The music is catchy and the verses full of sentiment, very beautifully depicting the life of Uncle Sam's faithful employees whose very life is given to the service, but who are almost unknown save to their fellow-workers.

Mr. McCarter is the author of "Sweet Darling Mother" (a tribute to his mother) and "Be Kind to the Living" (dedicated to the author's lifelong friend and co-worker, Bert J. Lockwood).

"The Heroes of the R. M. S." and "Only a Dog, But Faithful even in death," are from the pens of these gifted authors and are equal to anything put out by the well known song writing teams of today.

SECURED THE LICENSE

J. E. Hoffman and Paul Paulson of Elgin returned home this morning. Mr. Hoffman has been ill at ease for the past few days because of a serious mistake made by the postal service. Last week he went to R. H. Lloyd of Elgin, and had affidavits made out, stating that he was legally entitled to a marriage license and furthermore that he wanted one. Mr. Lloyd promptly sent the sworn statements to the county clerk here, and the papers were duly made out and sent to the applicant. Some way or other the legal paper never reached him, and Mr. Hoffman came to La Grande in an effort to find Mr. Lloyd, who has been here the past few days. After a long search, the much wanted notary was found and the clerk instructed to make out a duplicate license. Hoffman did a sprint to the court house and back again to his train that would carry him to his waiting bride-to-be. Unless an accident happened to the Elgin train, the man will be married today.
