LA GRANDE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

PROF. DAY, PRINCIPAL.
MRS. DAY, ASSISTANT.

This is one of the best musical institutions in the state, and that people in this city and valley are beginning to discover the advantage of this school. The system is the latest and most practical, and includes all the latest discoveries in the art of teaching music. The school is divided into two departments; No. 1 is for beginners from 5 years or more and are taught the first three grades. Pupils come one hour each day. This is no kindergarten system but far superior. In No. 2 the grades are from 2 to 5. Here they graduate. Pupils take one or two lessons a week as they desire. No scholars will be permitted to remain in this school who do not study.

AT THE THEATRE

Eva King

Leading Lady with Mack-Swain Company

A good sized and appreciative audience greeted the Swain Company last night on the very beautiful production of "The Belle of Richmond". This is beyond question one of the finest staged plays that has been seen here this season, and in the hands of a large and well balanced cast was a distinct treat.
Miss Swain as "Leone" was the living personification of southern beauty and proved herself well worthy her reputation as the most finished and versatile leading woman in repertoire. Mr. Tannings "Bob" was a beautiful piece of dramatic interpretation as was Mr. B. S. Frank's "Dick" these two accomplished actors maintaining a splendid emotional intensity throughout the action of the play.

Messrs Hatfield and Howard in their respective character roles in a most finished manner while Wm Hitchison as "Mose" proved himself a most clever and versatile performer.
Miss Fairfax gained new laurels by her clever vocal rendition of "Making Eyes" and "A Picture For Two. A delightful southern atmosphere was maintained throughout the bill.
