James H. Aitkin, of Baker county, says that at present the treasurer not only draws his salary of $4500 a year, but is also allowed to deposit the surplus funds of the state where he pleases and to pocket the interest on these huge deposits. Mr. Aitkin declares emphatically for a change in this system so that a board, consisting of the governor, secretary of state and treasurer, shall decide where these deposits shall be made and that the interest on these shall revert to the state and not to the extra compensations of the official—Oregonian.
