SOCIETY

BIRTHDAY PARTY
Mr. W. B. Campbell lives on his farm three miles east of La Grande, and is one of the highly respected pioneers of the Grande Ronde valley.

April 5, 1906, was Mr. Campbell's 65th birthday, and he gave a party, inviting his old friends that were over 50, and under 20 years old. As bees fly home at night with loads of treasure, so it was that evening at the Campbell farm. His friends came in with love and respect until there were more than 100 and with the exception of a very few, all present were either born in this valley or had been here for more than thirty years.

Mr. Campbell and his good wife, assisted by Mrs. Fraker, Mrs. Groat and others, made welcome all who came. The large home was too small to entertain the company, but ample arrangements had been made. The large barn has a fine upper floor and this was nicely arranged and lighted for the occasion and here was ample room for all, and room to dance a half a dozen or more sets. The dance went merrily on, until 10:30 o'clock, when Dick Peebler, the floor manager, announced ladies choice for quadrille. The men and boys all then looked their prettiest and when the sets were formed it was seen that Mrs. Peebler had captured Tom Sherwood. Mrs. Wilkinson with Peter Kuhn, Mr. Fraker with Bud McAllister, Mrs. Laslie with John Williamson, Mrs. Braden with John Peebler, Mrs. Cross with Jim McCall and Mrs. Williamson with Ed Groat. There was some controversy that Mrs. W. and Mr. Groat were out of their class, but when the orchestra started up with "Buffalo Galls is comin' Out Tonight to Dance by the Light of the Moon" the twenty year old class stood attention, with jealous admiration to see the perfect grace of the performers.

While they danced in the barn, those who did not dance were well entertained at the home. The friends present did not propose that Mr. and Mrs. Campbell should do all the nice things, so just before supper all present were asked to come to the hall and the last to come was Hon. D. A. McAllister with Mr. Campbell, and Mr. J. T. Williamson led Mr. Campbell to the middle of the hall and in a neat speech, presented him with a fine chair, a birthday present from his friends present. Mr. Campbell thanked his friends with a neat speech.

Supper was then served and like all other features of the evening's entertainment, it was perfect, and the table was laden with all the good things that the good wife knows so well how to cook. At a late hour, or rather an early hour all congratulated and thanked Mr. and Mrs. Campbell for their kindness and want home feeling that it was good to be there.

The Damen Kranz was delightfully entertained last evening at the McCall home north of La Grande. The guests were taken to the home of the hostess in carry-alls and spent the evening very pleasantly. Delicious refreshments were served. Those present were: Misses Gertrude Mitchell, Margaret Kirk, Zada Haney, Alice McKinley, Mertie Aldrich, Ada Fowler, Emma Clark Gertrude Beiver, Allie Stephens, Marie Clark, Retha Fowler, of Portland. Mesdames C. J. Scriber, C. S. Williams, Messrs Williams, MacLennon, Smith, Beiver, Masee, Nelson and Harrison.

Whose Say-so is Best?
With nearly all medicines put up for sale through druggists, one has to take the maker's say-so alone as to their curative value. Of course, such testimony is not that of a disinterested party, accordingly is not to be given the same credit as if written from disinterested motives. Dr. Pierce's medicines, however, form a single and therefore striking exception to this rule. Their claims to the confidence of invalids does not rest solely upon their makers' say-so or praise. Their ingredients are matters of public knowledge, being printed on each separate bottle wrapper. Thus invalid sufferers are taken into Dr. Pierce's full confidence. Scores of leading medical men have written enough to fill volumes in praise of the curative value of the several ingredients entering into these well-known medicines.

Amongst these writers we find such medical lights as Prof. F. E. Ellsworth, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago; Prof. Hale of the same city; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati, Ohio; Prof. John King, M. D., late of Cincinnati, Ohio; Dr. Grover Coe, of New York; Dr. Bartholow, of Jefferson Medical College of Pa., and scores of others equally eminent. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures the worst cases of female weakness, prostration, irregularities, cures painful periods, dries up disagreeable and weakening drains, sometimes known as pelvic catarrh and a multitude of other diseases peculiar to women. Bear in mind, it is not a patent nor even a secret medicine, but the "Favorite Prescription" of a regularly educated physician of large experience in the cure of woman's peculiar ailments, who frankly and confidently takes his patients into his full confidence by telling them just what his "Prescription" is composed of. Of no other medicine put up for women's special maladies and sold through druggists, can it be said that the maker is not afraid to deal thus frankly, openly and honestly, by letting every patient using the same know exactly what she is taking.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is guarded as sacredly secret and womanly confidences are protected by professional privacy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. How to preserve health and beauty is told in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. It is free. For a paper-covered copy send Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps to cover mailing only; in cloth binding 31 stamps. Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure constipation.

GOOD PLAN
James H. Aitkin, of Baker county, says that at present the treasurer not only draws his salary of $4500 a year, but is also allowed to deposit the surplus funds of the state where he pleases and to pocket the interest on these huge deposits. Mr. Aitkin declares emphatically for a change in this system so that a board, consisting of the governor, secretary of state and treasurer, shall decide where these deposits shall be made and that the interest on these shall revert to the state and not to the extra compensations of the official—Oregonian.
