SPRING FEVER

When spring comes hurrying o'er the hills,
And music ripples in the rills
And soft the winds begin to blow,
I want pack my grip and go—
Go where? O, anywhere!
Just go.
I grab my grip and hustle down
To that yon little railroad town,
Ane when the engine whistles blow
I buy my ticket and I go—
Go where? O, anywhere!
Just go.
There's mountain top and shaded dell,
There's prairie, lake and seaside—well
It makes no difference which, just so
You up and pack your grip and go—
Go where? O, anywhere!
Just go.

The showing made by the published statement of the two La Grande banks is a conclusive evidence of the prosperity of this city and county.

Yesterday was clean up day for Baker City. The idea is worthy of acceptance in many cities, not omitting our own.

Unless there is a decided change in sentiment between now and next Friday, Judge Lowell, who is a candidate for United States Senator, will receive many votes in this county.

The new primary law will give many of our citizens a much larger conception of the greatness of Oregon. There are many candidates who had little knowledge of Eastern Oregon prior to this campaign.

There is an idea that is continually being suggested that the vote at the primary election in this county will be light. The OBSERVER cannot help but feel that when the votes are counted the showing will be sufficient to prove that the voters of Union county have done their whole duty in the matter of the selection of their nominees.

RACE FOR BIG SHIPS

The launching of the great English battleship Dreadnought is followed almost immediately by reports from Washington that the House Committee on Naval Affairs favors the construction for the United States of a similar, but even more formidable, warship. That we are in a fair way to have the most powerful battleship in the world is in itself, according to the majority of the press, a cause sufficient for American gratification. The name of the vessel, the Constitution, adds materially to the popularity of the project and will, says the Philadelphia Press, "perpetuate in a most satisfactory way a name that stirs every American who reads his history."

GOOD FRIDAY

The observance of Good Friday dates back to the earliest period of the christian era. In fact it may be concluded that it was kept from the very beginning. It is the most solemn day in all the church year, corresponding to the Day of Atonement under the old Jewish Dispensation for on it is gratefully and humbly commemorated the crucifixion of Jesus Christ whereby he made atonement for the sins of the whole world. Millions of Christians on this day will be bewailing their sins and listening to the great drama of the Passion.

On this day Jesus Christ will be set orth crucified before the whole civilized world. The gospel has a twofold message, first one of Evangelical severity, and then one of Evangelical joy. The church year is arranged and follows closely the lines and order of the gospel, so a Good Friday is observed as the necessary preparation for the joyous celebration of Easter. We must first stand at the cross before going to the open tomb. It is a source of satisfaction those Christian bodies who abandoned the church year are now recovering slowly their lost Christian inheritance. They have reclaimed Christmas and Easter, may they finish the good work by regaining Good Friday and Holy Week, and finally the whole Christian year.
