NECK AND NECK RACE OR PRIMARY ELECTION

HOUGH WINS

In the contest for justice of the peace John E. Hough was renominated.

CAKE CLAIMS IT

A phone message received in this city from H. M. Cake of Portland conveys the information that he claims the nomination for United States senator over Jonathan Bourne.

A phone message from Bourne states that while he concedes Multnomah county to Cake, he says the outlying counties will pull him through.

WITHYCOMBE IN THE LEAD

Private telephone messages from Portland say that the vote for governor is between Geer and Withycombe with the indication favorable to the latter.

(Scripps News Association)

Portland, April 21—3:30 p. m.—Incomplete returns show neck and neck races for the Republican nomination for United States Senators, between Cake and Bourne and the same is also true between Geer and Withycombe for governor. It is impossible with the incomplete returns now received to tell the victors.

Ellis is probably nominated for congress in the second district, and Hawley is in the lead for congress in the first district.

In 66 precincts out of 90, in Multnomah county, gives Bourne 1590, Cake 2679, Lowell 853, Smith 541, Watson 757.

The same precincts give Brown 762, Geer 2624, Johns 1272, Sehlbrede 202, Withycomb 1681.

A majority of the country precincts show gains for Bourne, which may overcome Cake's lead.

Withycomb carries Washington, as does Cake. Bourne carries Wasco, as does Smith. Withycomb carries Linn as does Cake Geer and Bourne carry Joseph. Lowell carries Morrow as does Geer. Bourne and Geer carry Clatsop and Jackson. Lowell carries Umatilla as does Withycomb. Brown carries Baker county as does Withycomb.

BARONESS BURDETT IS 86

(Scripps News Association)

London, April 21—Baroness Burdett-Coutts, probably the world's greatest philanthropist, is celebrating her ninety-second birthday today. During the four-score and twelve years of her life she has given away more than $25,000,000 for charitable purposes and many of the most important charitable institutions in the United Kingdom owe their existence and prosperous condition to her munificence. She is the only woman who was ever raised to the peerage in recognition of her many acts of charity and her public spirit. She is the daughter of Sir Francis Burdett, M. P. and the granddaughter of Thomas Coutts, the great banker. Her vast fortune is derived from the Coutts bank in which she is still a partner. She declined all offers of marriage until she was sixty-eight years old, when she married Sir William Ashmead, who was then only thirty years old. The marriage which was strongly disapproved of by Queen Victoria, proved a very happy one, contrary to general expectations. The Baroness was raised to the peerage through the efforts of Gladstone.
