 as Alice errors were so frequent that the tally man couldn't keep up with the game. The feature of the game was the twirling of Gregory. For six innings he simply was too much for the visitors and struck out man after man. Occasionally they would get a rap at the ball but never a safe hit did they score until after the sixth inning. The last three innings saw Betzel in the box for La Grande and the Alice men taking turns about throwing. Betzel allowed no runs but Alice did get three hits off him. It might be well to mention here that La Grande played an errorless game up to the ninth inning. In the last inning Kooser made one error, and allowed the first stolen base for Alice. Klebs tossed the ball to second when he saw the base runner and Kooser got his big mit on it alright and had his man out six feet from the base, when he dropped the ball. The fielding exhibition put up by the local team was worthy of mention. Siegrists at the nital bag was always there and with the one exception, short stop and second base were well covered by Kooser and Crawford. These two important positions were ably handled and the team work of these two players was a feature of the game. Childers at third had one attempt that he failed to land, it could not be called a possible. Out in the field Cotner had one opportunity and made the best of it. So did Van Buren. Collins failed to get a chance. Hovering over the home plate was the big piece of big base ball flesh in the shape of Klebs and he is certainly all there. Cool as a cucumber he waited for the ball and regardless of where it came he was there. With a little more coaching and practicing, La Grande will have an exceedingly strong team.

A HUNGRY MAN
 Is never good natured, but a man who has dined well always shows his most genial side. All experienced wives know this, and many wise women in this city have learned something else.

IF THEY WANT
 To strike "hubby" for a particularly large slice of his bank account, they arrange to have him dine at our restaurant. They know the better the dinner the easier he will grant their request. And they also know the best dinner is to be had right here.

Bad Stomach Makes Bad Blood.

You can not make sweet butter in a foul, unclean churn. The stomach is as a churn in which to agitate, work up and disintegrate our food as it is being digested. If it be weak, sluggish and foul the result will be torpid, sluggish liver and bad, impure blood.

The ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery are just such as best serve to correct and cure all such derangements. It is made up without a drop of alcohol in its composition, chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead of the commoner employed alcohol. Now this glycerine is itself a valuable medicine, instead of a delectious agent like alcohol, especially in the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia and the various forms of indigestion. Prof. Elmer Ellinger, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says of it:

"Dyspepsia it serves an excellent purpose. It is one of the best manufactured products of the present time in its action upon enfeebled, disordered stomachs; especially if there is ulceration or catarrhal gastritis (catarrhal inflammation of stomach). It is a most efficient preparation. Glycerine will relieve many cases of pyrosis (heartburn) and excessive gastric acidity. It is useful in chronic intestinal dyspepsia, especially the flatulent variety, and in certain forms of chronic constipation stimulating the secretory and excretory functions of the intestinal glands."

When combined, in just the right proportions, with Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherry bark, Queen's root, Blood-root and Mandrake root, or the extracts of these, as in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, there can be no doubt of its great efficacy in the cure of all stomach, liver and intestinal disorders and derangements. These several ingredients have the strongest endorsement in all such cases of such eminent medical leaders as Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, Chicago; Prof. Robert A. Harris, M. D., of Medical Department, University of Pa.; Prof. Laurence Johnson, M. D., Medical Department, University of New York; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., Hahnemann Medical College, Chicago; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., and Prof. John King, M. D., Authors of the American Dispensatory, and scores of others among the leading medical men of our land. Who can doubt the curative virtues of a medicine the ingredients of which have such a professional endorsement?

SPORTING EVENTS

DOINGS ON LOCAL AND COAST RING, TRACK AND DIAMOND

La Grande has a strong team, and no one who saw the game yesterday will dispute it. Alice came on the field with a vague hope of showing the players from La Grande how the game is played down their way. Evidently they play considerably different, for the first three Alice men that came up made frantic efforts to find the sphere, and churned up the atmosphere in grand style, but it availed them nothing. Gregory delivered nine balls, and when the ninth passed over the plate Umpire Andrews bellowed out, "Batter out" for the third time. Crawford was the first man up for La Grande. From then on to the end of the game the local players hit Meyers at will. It would be useless to attempt to enumerate the plays
