AMUSEMENTS

"THE CHRISTIAN"

Mr. Caine undertook the dramatization of "The Christian" himself. As he was more familiar with the characters than anyone else, he consequently has given to the world the greatest dramatization of the book that could be made. His Glory Quayle, lovable and willful, is the same as ever, but John Storm, who is almost a religious fanatic in the book, is a more reasonable and attractive character in the play. Among the many stirring, soul-lifting, blood-curdling situations in "The Christian" none will be found of greater strength than the one wherein Storm enters the apartment of Glory, and bids her prepare for death, as he intends to murder her to keep her from the contamination of the world. He warns her to say her prayers, and he encircles her throat with his hands, and is on the point of strangling her, when the woman's quick wit saves her life. In feverish anxiety and impassioned speech the young and beautiful girl reminds him of the childhood love for one another, and so works upon his mind that he relinquishes his purpose. Another scene of dramatic genius is where a mob attempts to capture the villain, but are held back by John Storm and brother Paul. Throughout the play the attention of the audience is riveted upon the stage, and never for a moment does the interest lag. Glory Quayle will be impersonated by the beautiful Lillian Lawrence, and John Storm by John Saingpolis. In Steward's opera house, Thursday, May 3d. Prices .50, .75, 1.00 and 1.50.

SOME SIGNIFICANT STATISTICS

Statistics from the great Piano Trade authority, The "Musical Courier" show that the Eilers Houses now handle one half the Pianos sold on the Pacific Coast. Nearly two score of America's factories vie with each other to supply our tremendous trade. These factories know that the Eilers Houses take a permanent interest in every instrument sold. They realize that the Eilers Houses tolerate no poor workmanship, or inferior product. They know that every Piano must stand the rigid test of our warranty. We can boast therefore, of having the very finest line of instruments of any retail dealers the World and this line is fully represented in our La Grande stock. Remember that the sale will not always last. We have an elegant assortment from which to select. Come in and have a little heart-to-heart talk with us and just see what we will do for you. Our business is to make people happy. Come and join the Merry-makers. Eilers Piano House
