LA GRANDE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

PROF. DAY, PRINCIPAL
MRS. DAY, ASSISTANT

This is one of the best musical institutions in the state, and that people in this city and valley are beginning to discover the advantage of this school. The system is the latest and most practical, and includes all the latest discoveries in the art of teaching music. The school is divided into two departments: No. 1 is for beginners from 5 years or more and are taught the first three grades. Pupils come one hour each day. This is no kindergarten system but far superior.
In No. 2 the grades are from 2 to 5. Here they graduate. Pupils take one or two lessons a week as they desire. No scholars will be permitted to remain in this school who do not study.

MISS LILLIAN LAWRENCE

"THE CHRISTIAN"

Mr. Caine undertook the dramatization of "The Christian" himself. As he was more familiar with the characters than anyone else, he consequently has given to the world the greatest dramatization of the book that could be made. His Glory Quayle, lovable and willful, is the same as ever, but John Storm, who is almost a religious fanatic in the book, is a more reasonable and attractive character in the play. Among the many stirring, soullifting, blood-curdling situations in "The Christian" none will be found of greater strength than the one wherein Storm enters the apartment of Glory, and bids her prepare for death, as he intends to murder her to keep her from the contamination of the world. He warns her to say her prayers, and he encircles her throat with his hands, and is on the point of strangling her, when the woman's quick wit saves her life. In feverish anxiety and impassioned speech the young and beautiful girl reminds him of the childhood love for one another, and so works upon his mind that he relinquishes his purpose. Another scene of dramatic genius is where a mob attempts to capture the villain, but are held back by John Storm and brother Paul. Throughout the play the attention of the audience is riveted upon the stage, and never for a moment does the interest lag.

Glory Quayle will be impersonated by the beautiful Lillian Lawrence, and John Storm by John Sainpolis. In Steward's opera house, Thursday, May 3d. Prices 50, 75, 1.00 and 1.50.

SOME SIGNIFICANT STATISTICS

Statistics from the great Piano Trade authority, The "Musical Courier" show that the Eilers Houses now handle one half the Pianos sold on the Pacific Coast Nearly two score of America's factories vie with each other to supply our tremendous trade. These factories know that the Eilers Houses take a permanent interest in every instrument sold. They realize that the Eilers Houses tolerate no poor workmanship, or inferior product.
They know that every Piano must stand the rigid test of our warranty. We can boast therefore of having the very finest line of instruments of any retail dealers the World and this fact is fully represented in our La Grande stock. Remember that the sale will not always last. We have an elegant assortment from which to select. Come in and have a little heart-to-heart talk with us and just see what we will do for you. Our business is to make people happy. Come and join the Merry-makers. Eilers Piano House
