COME OUT OF YOUR SHELL

Do you allow yourself to become absentminded, wrapped up in a brown study? Look about you. Speak to those that you have been in the habit of ignoring. Make friends with everyone. Strive to touch life everywhere you can. You will accomplish your tasks better by so doing than by going forward blindly absorbed in meditation or engrossed by internal musings.

The Salem Statesman is the only paper in the state which does not like the theory, or the practice, the inception or the result of the direct primary law. But then the Statesman has been lubricated with machine oil for so long that its parts must of necessity squeak when the lubricant is no more.—Pendleton Tribune.

The Brownsville Times takes occasion to remark:—"The Oregonian boasts that the Portland postoffice leads all other northwestern cities in the sale of stamps. Especially does the Oregonian crow over Seattle. Seattle, however, has had no Jonathan Bourne and divers other candidates running for state office on a campaign of education."

In caring for its famine sufferers the Japanese Government has taken the example of the British in India as a model. It has begun an elaborate system of relief works, road building and recovery of wast land, employing men from the famine districts at low wages, to enable them to sustain themselves. Land taxes are remitted, and the government is distributing seed for the next year's crop.

Great interest has centered in the Aiken bill in Ohio for the increase of the saloon tax from $550 to $1,000, which passed the Senate last week, having been adopted by the House. The vote was close. Governor Pattison is known to be in favor of the bill although he is too ill to take any action, and it will probably become a law without his signature. There are about 12,000 saloons in the State of Ohio, and it is estimated by the best authorities that this will close about one-half of them.

A New Hampshire newspaper man visited a near by city, and at one of the hotels he was served with some honey, delectable to his taste. On his next trip to the city he was accompanied by his wife, and went to the same hotel, with visions of the same honey. It did not appear, however, and beckoning to a waiter, he said: "Say, Sam, where is my honey?" He was almost paralyzed when that worthy grinned and replied: "She don't work here no more, boss; she done got a job at the silk mill." The wife received a handsome new dress before they returned home, after making a solemn promise not to tell the story.

The primary election law has passed the first test with entire satisfaction to its friends and supporters. The only disappointment in connection with it is the smallness of the vote cast, but that is the fault of the people and not of the law. The only objection we have heard comes from those who have heretofore had much to do with manipulating conventions and very much dislike to surrender that prerogative.

The law is all right and a little practice on the part of the voters will remove every legitimate objection advanced.—Willowa Ledger.

"MADE IN OREGON" BUTTONS

Secretary Turner Oliver, of the La Grande Commercial association, has just received from Portland a box of buttons bearing the "Made in Oregon" campaign now being promoted by Portland manufacturers. The buttons have the words "Made in Oregon" on them, besides the picture of a busy beaver engaged in cutting down a large tree. The beaver was one of the first state emblems ever adopted by Oregon and is used as the symbol of Oregon industry in this campaign of home made goods. All commercial bodies are urged to take up the matter and induce people everywhere to wear the Oregon buttons and insist on having Oregon made goods of all kinds. The buttons are being distributed among La Grande people who wish to show their loyalty to the state by wearing a button and booming for the state.

DEATH OF JOHN H. TERRY

The death of John H. Terry, a former well known resident of this county occurred in Woodland, California, Thursday evening, April 19, 1906. Deceased was born in North Carolina 62 years ago and served as a confederate soldier in the Civil War. He was well-known in this county, having resided here with his family for several years. He leaves a wife, five sons and three daughters to mourn his loss. Two of his sons resided in this city and left for Woodland on the evening of their father's death. The telegraph message which they sent from Elgin stating that they were on their way never reached its destination, and their father was laid to rest a few minutes before their arrival in Woodland.—Elgin Recorder.

Nature's Way Is Best.

The function strengthening and tissue building plan of treating chronic, lingering and obstinate cases of disease as pursued by Dr. Pierce, is following after Nature's plan of restoring health.

He uses natural remedies, that is extracts from native medicinal roots, prepared by processes wrought out by the expenditure of much time and money, without the use of alcohol, and by skillful combination in just the right proportions.

Used as ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, Black Cherry-bark, Queen's root, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot and Stone root, specially exert their influence in cases of lung, bronchial and throat troubles, and this "Discovery" is, therefore, a sovereign remedy for bronchitis, laryngitis, chronic coughs, catarrh and kindred ailments.

The above native roots also have the strongest possible endorsement from the leading medical writers, of all the several schools of practice, for the cure not only of the diseases named above but also for indigestion, torpor of liver, or biliousness, obstinate constipation, kidney and bladder troubles and catarrh, no matter where located.

You don't have to take Dr. Pierce's say-so alone as to this; but he claims for his "Discovery" is backed up by the writings of the most eminent men in the medical profession. A request by postal card or letter, addressed to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for a little book of extracts from eminent medical authorities endorsing the ingredients of his medicines, will bring a little book free that is worthy of your attention if needing a good, safe, reliable remedy of known composition for the cure of almost any old chronic, or lingering malady.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic.

The most valuable book for both men and women is Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. A splendid 1008-page volume, with engravings and colored plates. A copy paper-covered, will be sent to anyone sending 21 cents in one-cent stamps, to pay the cost of mailing only. To Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. Cloth-bound, 31 stamps.
