

REPUBLICAN COUNTY NOMINEES

For Representative

S. R. HAWORTH

S. R. Haworth, the Republican standard bearer for representative is a firm believer in state number one and against county division. Mr. Haworth has been a resident of this county for more than twenty years, served on the city council and was one of the first promoters of the Morgan Lake power which is now known as the Grande Ronde

Electric Co. Mr. Haworth is a deep thinker and will represent Union county with credit. He always stands with the masses against class legislation and for the highest standard of morality. When he returns from Salem his constituents of Union county will have no cause to regret for having voted for him.

For Commissioner

BENJ. BROWN

One of the most important offices as far as the taxpayers are concerned is the commissioner, and in Ben Brown the Republicans present a man who has made a study of county finances for several years and is without doubt one of the best posted men on this subject. His long residence in the county, having seen it grow from one family, and he and his estimable wife was that family, to its present grandeur, qualifies him as to the needs and capabilities of this commonwealth.

For County Judge

J. C. HENRY

Few men have a wider acquaintance throughout Union county than J. C. Henry, the republican nominee for county judge, having settled in this valley thirty years ago. For the first two years he followed his occupation, being a carpenter and then entered into the employment of the general merchandise store of W. J. Snodgrass where he remained continuously for 14 years, when in 1892 he embarked in the furniture business for himself and succeeded in building one of the largest, furniture stores in Eastern Oregon.

He has been honored with many positions of trust. For eight years he was a member of the city council and was mayor for two terms. He served as a member of the school board for several years. He was captain of the La Grande militia for quite a while, in fact has always done his part whenever called upon. He is in the prime of life, 57 years old, has made a success of his own finances and is just the kind of a man to handle the affairs of the county.

For County Clerk

JAS. B. GILHAM

Union county in the years past has had many efficient county clerks but none have given greater satisfaction than the present incumbent James B. Gilham, who is a candidate for re-election. His years of clerical training prior to his election fitted him for his present duties and his splendid judgment in calling to his assistance men of experience as deputies, won the admiration of all with whom he came in contact, especially the members of the bar irrespective of party. The records are always up to date carefully filed and indexed, everything in its place and a place for everything. No one ever visited the office but what they went away with the information sought and the feeling that the county clerk's office was filled by a clerk and deputies who were there to serve the people and who took delight in so doing. Mr. Gilham was elected by a big majority two years ago. He now enjoys a much wider acquaintance and has every assurance of being re-elected for his second term.

For County Sheriff

W. W. RANDALL

W. W. Randall, the Republican candidate for sheriff has been a resident of this county for the past thirty years and the clean campaign he put up during the primaries is characteristic of the man. He owns a fine farm in what is termed the Lower Cove and when elected as he will surely be will give the county an administration second to none. He is a man of resolution and firmness; with excellent judgement and every one irrespective of condition will receive courteous treatment and protection, consistent with their rights. Mr. Randall will make a clean and progressive campaign and will receive a large majority.

For County Recorder

DAVID H. PROCTER

Mr. Procter's official record for the past four years has been such as to win the respect of all who have met him in an official way and when it became known that he desired a re-nomination it was conceded to him without opposition within his own party and no one sought a nomination by filing a petition for the office within the Democratic party. Mr. Procter has a right to be proud of the manner in which he keeps his records and with the minimum of expense. He is doing the largest volume of business ever transacted in the Recorder's office. His election is conceded by all.

FOR COUNTY TREASURER

In John Frawley Union county has one of the most faithful custodians of the people's money in the state. For several terms he has had no opposition at the polls and the same is true this time. His policy of calling in warrants just as soon as the money reaches him has saved the county thousands of dollars of interest. He is always at his post and his accounts are always subject to inspection. He is a faithful, efficient and conscientious public servant.

FOR CORONOR

J. M. Hiltz the Republican nominee coronor has been an active republican all of his life and is qualified for the office, which under certain conditions makes the coronor acting sheriff. Mr. Hiltz will not be found wanting in ability or discretion and will perform the duties of the office in a business like manner and will protect the interests of all parties concerned.

THE RIGHT SPIRIT

Ex-Governor T. T. Geer sent the following generous message to his successful rival:

"Dr. James Withycombe, Corvallis, Or: Accept my congratulations, with assurance of corial support.—T. T. Geer."

Upon receipt of which, Mr. Withycombe immediately responded with the following: "Hon. T. T. Geer, Salem, Or.—My Dear Sir: It is with keen sense of gratitude I acknowledge your congratulations and hearty assurance of support, sincerely trust that our campaign has developed no sore spots and that republicans of Oregon will stand solidly together and elect the ticket from top to bottom. Hoping for a reunited party, and a victory in June, I am,

"Most cordially yours,
"JAMES WITHYCOMBE"
