Secretary Taft is rather afraid of the Supreme Court bench because he thinks he may find it not so much a seat as a shelf.—News, Harvey, Ia.

Colonel Bryan is now wondering whether Judge Parker forgot that Nebraska was not exactly in the South.—Enterprise, Luck, Wis.

Still, it will be several days, we think, before Grover Cleveland writes in to ask that Bryan's nomination be made unanimous.—Times, Greenville, Ohio.

Judge Parker says there should be no objection to choosing a Presidential candidate from the South. His opinion would have more weight if he had not made such a bad guess at the last one.—Banner, Smithland, Ky.

It isn't the rich man, it isn't necessarily the successful man who is always the happiest. It's the man who has always in matters social, political and business acted in such a way as to keep himself square with his own conscience.

An announcement is made that the department of agriculture is looking for a number of men to fill vacancies in the various bureaus. The civil service commission will make proper examinations about the middle of this month to determine who are eligible to the positions. This work will be conducted at a large number of cities, lists of these being available to any one who will address an inquiry to the civil service commission at Washington, D. C.

How in the world Judge Alton B. Parker can collect enough nerve to advance any advice on presidential candidates is more than we can see. It strikes us that he disqualified himself as an expert witness at a former hearing two years past.—Record, Bartow, Fla.

August Belmont, the New York City banker, has begun suit against W. R. Hearst's New York Evening Journal for $500,000 damages because of attacks upon him as a citizen, which he declares were published in the paper named. August had better leave Hearst alone or more will be proven than the Journal alleged.

Schwab, the Pittsburg steel magnate, was reported, a few weeks ago, to be very ill. It turns out, though, that he was only thinking hard. He was trying to decide in what state he should try to buy a seat in the United States Senate, and now that he has settled on Nevada he is mingling with the world again.—Herald, Clara City, Minn.

Perhaps we are not as wise as we look or would have people believe we are, but it does seem very strange to hear all this talk that is going on relative to raising the salaries of United States representatives and senators, the President and the Vice-President. As yet we have not heard of any of the present incumbents threatening to strike or quit their jobs if their salaries are not increased, but on the other hand fellows who want the jobs are offering more than twice as much as their salaries would come to for the places. Just how a man can afford to do that is what puzzles the the country fellows who live in small towns.—Register, Olathe, Kan.

IS IT JUST?

In the political conditions now existing which have disheartened many in the success of the principles of a republican form of government, we are surely reaping the harvest of the reasoning which enfranchised the non-taxpaying man, while the taxpaying woman remained disfranchised; which thrust the ballot unasked into the hands of the negro just out of slavery, while the author of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" pleaded for in vain; which urged the Indians upon the Western prairies to accept suffrage as a favor, while the opinions of missionaries and teachers who were trying to raise them to the level of civilization, were counted with idiots, insane, and criminals on election day; which crowned with sovereignty many an illiterate or ignorant alien from foreign lands, while denying representation to educated American women. Such inconsistency in the application of justice does not find its equal in all the world's history.
