(Union Scout)

Joseph Lore, age 103 years, is reported quite ill at his ranch on Catherine Creek. Mr. Rodriguez left Tuesday for the Willamette valley where he will look over the country and buy a farm if conditions suit him.

Mrs. Dr. Ewin with her four children left Tuesday morning to join her husband who is practicing medicine in East Portland.

The Union Woolen Mills received an order from the burnt district in California which shows the indomitable courage of the unfortunate people. The order was from D. Samuels & Co. and called for more than $5000 worth of goods. The blankets when on board at Union more than filled the flat car. Mr. Wilbur informs us that he was very glad to get the order and that the Woolen Mills are in shape to and will take ample care of all their customers.

(UNION REPUBLICAN)

The Kirk place in North Union was sold this week to a man from Idaho.

Chester Swackhammer has accepted a position at the Union drug store, in place of George Furgason, who has gone to California.

J. A. Morton is cultivating eight acres of strawberries near the Hall warehouse, and reports a fair prospect for a crop. Mr. Morton is one of the best gardeners and fruitgrowers in the county.

Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Swackhammer will leave for Portland Saturday night, where Mrs. Swackhammer may undergo an operation for liver-trouble. They will be met in Portland by their daughter, Mrs. Mulholland, who comes from Juneau.

ELGIN RECORDER

H. A. Bodmer, the La Grande implement dealer and all-round joshier, was in town this week.

E. E. Taylor, who has been visiting relatives in this section for several days has returned to La Grande.

Several of our citizens have availed themselves the past few days of acquiring a quarter section of timberland under the timber and stone act.

D. Madden, a well known pioneer farmer of this section, has gone to Portland, where he was operated upon for appendicitis. Denny's friends wish him a speedy recovery.

Wm. Arnold who has been swinging the lines over a six-horse stage team for a long time—goodness knows for how many years—took a ride in the automobile the other evening. "Bill" says the thing runs mighty darned smooth but he prefers driving stage.
