AMUSEMENTS

The Dixie Jubilee Concert Company rendered a most interesting program at the Central church last evening. The mixed octette carried the audience back to Dixie land with their "coon songs" and melodies. The leading voice was that of W. C. Buckner, who was encored time and time again after his rendition of the "Armor's Anvil" song. He has a remarkable voice. During the singing of the above song, he sang such low notes, that the vibrations could be felt in the building. Robert Moore entertained with a short monologue. Every number was well rendered and the church management is to be complimented on securing this company.

A smart show is promised to the theatergoers on next Monday, the 14th, which will knock into splinters the yarn of King Solomon's about there being nothing new under the sun. "The California Girls' Extravaganza," is the company composed of America's premier artists which will accomplish it. Between them they will evolve and execute an absolute newness, forsaking and leaving less up-to-date competitors, all shows and antediluvian details. The vaudeville and comedy products by this company takes every audience by storm, so bright is it and unexpected.

Even the blaze first nighters forget to be as cold as icicles and applaud to show their appreciation. The new twist of this attraction consists of a fantastic musical comedy, original songs and music feature and novelty vaudeville acts.

Prominent in the list of entertainers are: The 4 Thoroughbreds, The Amatos, Misses Russell and Wells, Ross and Adams Evelyn Fonner, and a chorus of twenty bewitching maidens.

"The California Girls" who appear at the Opera House next Monday is a rip-roaring entertainment of light extravaganzas and high class vaudeville. This big company numbering forty will be seen in the rollicking musical extravaganza "The Great White Way" which has been modelled and constructed along the lines of a Metropolitan Broadway production. No troupe on the circuit can boast of such a bevy of pretty Misses than those of "The California Girls" chorus, they are young, have fine voices and are supple and as lively as two year olds.

A WONDERFUL SHOW

The greatest success achieved in the past by any Uncle Tom's Cabin Company is that won by John F. Stowe's, which will appear at La Grande, Thursday, May 17 under a mammoth water-proof tent, with a seating capacity of two thousand seats, including five hundred opera chairs, with a stage sixty-four feet, the largest ever known under a tent. Of all the dramatic successes known there are none that equals this great play. It is established in popular favor and needs no indorsement from our press. It is sufficient to say that it will be presented by an excellent company of twenty players, with new and elaborate scenery gotten up for this season's tour. This large company also carries a challenge band composed of twenty solo artists under the direction of Prof. Hayworth, which will give a noon-day concert. Don't fail to see the big show on May 17th. Prices 25-35.

Don't be fooled and made to believe that rheumatism can be cured with local applications. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is the only positive cure for rheumatism. 35 cents. Tea or Tablets.
