COL. F. S. IVANHOE

Republican Candidate for District Attorney for the County of Union and Wallawa

In the recent primary election, no man put up a fairer fight than Col. Ivanhoe, who repelled the nomination for District Attorney. While a committee acted for him, he limited their services to statements absolutely true, and prohibited every thing offensive to all other candidates, as they were, and still are, his personal friends. He seemed to fully comprehend the purposes of the primary election law, which he has always favored, and is now the choice of his party for the office he seeks. To those acquainted with him, he needs no introduction. He is not an unknown quantity, personality or politically. His friendships are strong and lasting, and those who disagree with him, admit his fairness and ability. His standing and reputation at the bar is a fixed factor in the result at the primary, and makes his selection an assured fact. He came from Wallawa county, to this county nine years ago without a client, and has, by his industry, ability and integrity, built up a practice any attorney should be proud of. For six years he has been a member of the school-board in this city, and during time cur schools have increased from that teaching force of fourteen to twenty one and he has always shown himself equal to any emergency of the district, demanding thoroughness in results and economy in administration. As Referee in Bankruptcy he has had immediate charge of all bankruptcy matters in this section for the past five years, settling estates that were complicated, and involving a multiplicity of interests. In this work the only one appeal has been taken from his decisions, and in that case his action was affirmed, giving to laborers several thousand dollars. As City Attorney for the past two terms, he has been careful, faithful and competent. In the only Circuit Court litigation for the city, he has been successful, and expects to have the action of the Circuit Court, affirmed on appeal. This is what is known locally as the O Street case, where Oliver claims a portion of the street. City claims he has fenced in. This case is now pending in the Supreme Court. As Vice-President of the Commercial Club for the past two years, he has been found progressive and resourceful. In other words, he has always been found equal to any position he has occupied, and measured up to every thing required. No district in the state, after June next, will have more able prosecuting attorney than that district. We confidently predict he will have a majority that will surprise his best friends.
