Dr. D. Y. K. Deering of Union passed through this morning enroute to Portland to visit his daughters.

Roscoe Hughes, this morning plead guilty to the charge of disorderly conduct and was fined $10 by Recorder Snook.

The entertainment of the 401 Club by the Misses Paul and Williams has been eddifferently postponed.

John Hall, who has been ill with appendicitis for a week, has so far recovered as to be able to be upon the street a short time today.

Attorney F. S. Ivanhoe and son Lytton left this morning for Wallowa valley points. The Col. is making a through campaign and will certainly be our next district attorney.

Friends of the late Dr. L. D. Reavis will be given the privilege of visiting the remains at the home from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m. The casket will not be opened at the church.

La Grande will fittingly observe Memorial day, and the G. A. R., W. R. C., and the W. O. W. have already appointed committees to arrange a program. Complete details will be announced later. Memorial day comes on Wednesday, May 30th.

Governor Chamberlain passed through the city this morning on his way to Baker City where he will take the stump for the coming campaign. The Governor will speak at many of the towns in the Valley and will be heard in La Grande on Monday evening. The place and hour will be announced later.

Contractor George Kreiger, who has been confined to his home by illness for many weeks, has recovered and was receiving the congratulations of his many friends today. George said he knew that La Grande would soon enter upon a busy building season and he could not afford to be housed up any longer.

M. S. Carrol visited the Island City Odd Fellow lodge last evening and as a result he is laying off today and is occupying a handsome oak chair which was presented to him by the members of the Island City lodge. The chair was presented to him as a token of the esteem and mark appreciation of the many acts of kindness which Mr. Carrol has lavished upon the Island City lodge. Mr. Carrol greatly appreciates this token of friendship on the part of his neighboring lodge. The mark of honor is of special importance as Mr. Carrol is not a member of the La Grande lodge.

ATTRACTIVE SURROUNDINGS

Add to the enjoyment of eating. Our restaurant is run on this principle and our tables, not to speak of our employes are attractive to the eye. Snowy linen, shining silver and glittering glass ware make an appetizing preparation for the good food we serve, and there is when it is placed before you, perfectly cooked and in generous proportions. How we manage to serve such meals at such modest prices is a mystery to every housekeeper in town.

AN EDITORIAL RETRACTION

An excited looking man recently entered the editorial sanctum of a Western editor, exclaiming: "That notice of my death is false, sir. I'll horsewhip you within an inch of your life if you don't apologize in your next issue." The editor inserted the following the next day: "We regret extremely to announce that the paragraph which stated that Major Blazen was dead is without foundation."

SOCIETY

The Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian church met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. E. Moore. The afternoon was spent in piecing a quilt. Lemonade and lady fingers were served.

The public is cordially invited to attend the open meeting of the Neighborhood Club, which will take place next Tuesday evening at the Commercial club.
