Work for a bigger, busier and better La Grande.

La Grande is in her infancy but she will never be too old to grow.

People coming into Oregon should be informed concerning the advantages of settlement in the Grande Ronde valley.

Don't knock against your own town. If you can't have a good word for La Grande get out and make room for some one that can.

Singular that none of the regular professional calamity prophets thought of putting earthquakes in their predictions for 1906.

Let every Republican do his duty and the Republican ticket will be elected from top to bottom. There is no reason for doing otherwise.

Gorky says there is more personal liberty in Russia than in America. Which is evidence of the fact that Maxim still maintains an amazing point of view.

The Republican county chairman certainly makes matters plain in regard to mud-slinging during the campaign. The mud-campaign is a relic of other days and should not be forgotten, but if candi-

In San Francisco the authorities are putting into practice the old law that unless a man works he can not eat. Human parasites work hard enough being parasites to earn a good income.

Is La Grande going to celebrate independence Day? La Grande should never allow July 4 to pass without a rousing celebration. We should commence in time to prepare a celebration which will give the citizens of this county something to talk about for years to come.

Russia wants foreign capital to come in and develop her resources. Thanks, awfully. But American capital, at least, will continue to go where the Star Spangled Banner can protect it.

The Associated Press dispatches say that the Russian Democrats are divided. Probably into those who do not know what they want, and into those who would not know what to do with what they want if they got it.

Any other man than Dowie would be discouraged in his missionary efforts by finding his best converts such unutterable scoundrels as he asserts that the principle men in Zion are.

Now that the vinegar factory is a sure thing for La Grande, what next? More payrolls mean more people and more people mean more business for the merchants and real estate men.

dates really feel that they desire that sort of slush, they can undoubtedly be accommodated.
