LA GRANDE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

PROF. DAY, PRINCIPAL.
MRS. DAY, ASSISTANT.

This is one of the best musical institutions in the state, and that people in this city and valley are beginning to discover the advantages of this school. The system is the latest and most practical, and includes all the latest discoveries in the art of teaching music. The school is divided into two departments: No. 1 is for beginners from 5 years or more and are taught the first three grades. Pupils come one hour each day. This is no kindergarten system but far superior. In No. 2 the grades are from 2 to 5. Here they graduate. Pupils take one or two lessons a week as they desire. No scholars will be permitted to remain in this school who do not study.

A NEW THEATRICAL COMBINE

(Scripps News Association)
New York, May 11--It is rumored in well informed circles that plans are on foot for the formation of a theatrical combination on an enormous scale, with a capital more than $50,000,000. The firm of Klaw & Falanger figures conspicuously in the proposed plan, and Al Hayman, who is now on his way home from Europe, will be an important factor in the formation of the combination, which will include the present theatrical syndicate, several large vaudeville interests and Western theatrical corporations that are now allied with the trust. Independent managers who are now fighting the syndicate, needless to say will not be affiliated with the new enterprise. According to one of the promoters, the scheme has been maturing for several years and is not designed to crush any of the independent theatrical firms now doing business. It is being organized to gain greater economy and efficiency in building the enormous volume of business detail connected with managing and book-keeping. It will be arranged on a corporation basis, in which each of the members will continue to be identified with his present name and interests. Each individual will be protected as to his own portion of the common pool. It has not yet been decided where the central office of the new trust will be.
