AT THE THEATRE

A WONDERFUL SHOW

The greatest success achieved in the past by any Uncle Tom's Cabin Company is that won by John F. Stowe's, which will appear at La Grande, Thursday, May 17 under a mammoth water-proof tent, with a seating capacity of two thousand seats, including five hundred opera chairs, with a stage sixty-four feet, the largest ever known under a tent. Of all the dramatic successes known there are none that equals this great play. It is established in popular favor and needs no indorsement from our press. It is sufficient to say that it will be presented by an excellent company of twenty players, with new and elaborate scenery gotten up for this season's tour. This large company also carries a challenge band composed of twenty solo artists under the direction of Prof. Hayworth, which will give a noon-day concert. Don't fail to see the big show on May 17th. Prices 25-35.

AMUSEMENTS

CALIFORNIA GIRLS ARE ALL RIGHT

In spite of the rain, a full house greeted the "California Girls" at the opera house last evening, and judging from the continual rounds of laughter and screams of mirth, every one was well repaid. The comedians were exceptionally good, and sprang jokes and did funny things until everybody's sides ached. To relieve the strenuousness of continual laughing, a chorus of 16 girls and principals furnished the audience with music and ballet dancing. From the opening act until the last song, there was continual amusement. Specials entertained while stage settings were being changed. All in all it is a very good show.
