OPEN LETTERS TO VOTERS

Portland, Oregon, May 15, 1906.

To the voters of Oregon, Greeting: Gentlemen:—The undersigned beg leave to submit to you a few of our reasons for asking you to ratify, by your affirmative votes, the amendment granting equal rights to women, which has been placed before the voters through a petition numerously signed by the men of Oregon under the initiative and referendum.

This movement has grown under your management, from the small beginning known as the Married Woman's Sole Trader Bill, enacted by your Legislative Assembly in 1872, until it has reached such vast proportions as to attract the attention of the civilized world. A Constitutional Amendment proposing women's enfranchisement, submitted to you in 1884, brought us an affirmative vote of 11,285. This amendment was again submitted to your suffrages by Legislative initiative in 1900, bringing us a vote of 26,265. Although the population of the commercial centers had more than doubled in sixteen years, the "No" vote was only increased by 226, while the "Yes" vote was augmented by 16,042. This, to us, is a palpable augury of the triumph which we confidently look to you to consummate for us on the 4th day of June by placing "X" between "302" and "Yes" on your ballots. Do this and you will honor our flag of truce, the only power we can offer in our defense against the ballotted forces of the opposition. Do this, and you will honor Oregon, your mothers and yourselves. And your petitioners will ever pray.

ABIGAIL SCOTT DUNIWAY,
Honorary President Oregon Equal Suffrage Association and State Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. HENRY WALDO COE,
President Oregon Equal Suffrage Association.

CHARLOTTE MOPPET CARTWRIGHT,
President Women's Pioneer Auxiliary,
SARAH N. EVANS,
President Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs.

ESTHER C. POHL, M. D.,
President Women's Medical Association.

SPORTS

GAME CALLED AT FOUR

That much talked of ball game on Decoration day will be held at four o'clock to allow people to attend the regular services of the day and then go to the ball game. These teams are composed of business men of the city, and those who have their places of business. North of Adams Avenue will be termed North-siders, while those who are proficient in ball tossing and transact business on the other side of the street will be called South-sides. Mr. Cleaver has made a call for players and among those who responded are many noted ball players. C. S. Williams can be seen after banking hours reviving his old curves and spitballs. Van Buren will catch. In the squad who reported for practice on the North side and from whom the team will be picked are:—Wm. Miller, R. Eldridge, Frank Bay, H. V. Billknap, G. L. Cleaver, Clarence Crawford, Joe Keeney, Bolton, MacLannan, Scroggin, and Jones.

On the south side, practices have not been taken up yet, but H. Saigrist has so many players that need no practice, that he can afford to delay preliminary work. The receipts from this game will be used for the regular ball team.

The Elgin aggregation proved too weak for the local boys yesterday and went down to defeat to the tune of 5 to 3. Betzel allowed the second man up to walk, and the next man scored him with a hit. In the fourth, Betzel allowed another walk. The runner stole second, came to third on a wild pitch, and scored on the same trick. In the initial inning Arnold, Elgin's twirler, was excited, and every man took up a rap, and when the session closed, La Grande had five scores.

A large delegation of rooters came over from Elgin on the excursion. The game was a splendid exhibition of baseball, both teams playing in a creditable manner.

Batteries:—Elgin, Arnold and Donovan; La Grande, Betzel and Klebs.

NELSON—In this city Sunday, May 20, 1906 to Mr. and Mrs. Nelson, a daughter.
