LOCAL ITEMS

G. C. Miller is in the city from Walla Walla.

J. D. Walch of Joseph is in the city today.

E. A. Wills of Alice was a La Grande visitor today.

Recorder Proctor transacted legal business in Elgin yesterday.

F. D. McCully of Wallowa went to Portland this morning.

Supt. W. L. Tucker came over from Island City last evening.

W. A. Johnson came down from Pendleton last evening.

P. Nester and Wm. Kelley of Baker City are business visitors here today.

Al Ray, who was injured at Wallowa, is much better today and is up and around.

Attorney Turner Oliver returned from Portland this morning where he has been the past few days.

Col. F. S. Ivanhoe, Republican nominee for districts attorney, is transacting business in North Powder.

The costumes for the "Merchant of Venice" arrived today. They are especially adapted for the modernized play, and were secured at considerable cost to the class.

Ike Warnstoff, Luther Derringer, and Frank Marlin visited the North Fork and caught 380 fish, including one rainbow trout which measured 22 inches. This is the best catch reported so far this season.

The children of the members of the Eastern Star will be the guests of honor at the Chapter next Wednesday evening. Of course it is expected all members of the Eastern Star will attend with their children. Elaborate arrangements for their entertainment have been made.

A GOOD STORY

A good story is told of a La Grande teamster who one Sunday morning not moons ago rode his horse to the sewer which flows through the city, to drink. The horse did not favor the proposition, and refused to drink. The rider thumped a protruding rib a time or two with his boot heel, never thinking that the faithful animal would retaliate in any way but the unexpected happened. By a sudden movement the horse sent the rider skywards, and when he returned to earth he "made a noise" like he had been hunting for something in the bottom of the sewer.

When he crawled out the horse was taking advantage of the time offered and was rapidly feeding upon the grass which grew near the sewer. Those who witnessed the "high dive" are authority for the statement that the horse seemed to have had the more enjoyable time of the two.

TO OUR PATRONS AND THE GENERAL PUBLIC

We take pleasure in announcing that the LaGrande National Bank has been designated by the United States Government as a Depository for Government or Public funds.

This is gratifying to ourselves and should be to our patrons, as it marks another mile stone in the growth and prosperity of our city.

At this time we desire to thank the Public for their liberal patronage in the past and to assure them that in the future he will endeavor to give them the best service that lies within our power.

SOCIETY

The Ladies Aid society of the Presbyterian church entertained the members and friends of the church last evening with an enjoyable entertainment.

The first part of the evening being given to a program which was rendered interestingly. Mrs. Clara T. Lyle rendered the Hallelujah Chorale on the organ in her able and masterly way and was thoroughly appreciated.

Miss Jean McDonald and Mrs. A. L. Richardson were received with applause and welcome after study in Portland.

Miss McDonald sang "Pierrot" by Hutchinson and responded with an encore Grace Mayhew's "Slumber Song." This was the first time Miss McDonald has been heard in her home town and all were enthusiastic over her singing and delightfully entertained.

Mrs. Richardson sang a Scotch ballad, "My Ain Folks", in her most gracious and pleasing style and then gave, "A Song of Sleep", by Lord Henry Somerset in sweet and melodious tones.

The program closed with the pantomime "An Old Sweetheart of Mine" by Mrs. W. L. Brenholts. Too much can not be said in praise of the reading and tableau which carried out the little poem so beautifully. Each and every tableau was artistically posed and were received with admiration. Mesdames Kirk and Oliver served frappe and wafers during which a social time was enjoyed.

On account of the graduation exercises on Friday evening, Mesdames Molitor and Newlin and Miss Anson will not entertain the evening Kaffee Klatch this week as previously announced.

Mrs. M. Kirk assisted by Mesdames Bartlett, Carr and Engles will entertain the ladies and friends of the Aid Society of the Presbyterian church, at her home, "Bonnie Brae", in Old Town, tomorrow afternoon. Those interested and friends of the Aid are cordially invited.
