LA GRANDE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

PROF. DAY, PRINCIPAL.
MRS. DAY, ASSISTANT.

This is one of the best musical institutions in the state, and that people in this city and valley are beginning to discover the advantage of this school. The system is the latest and most practical, and includes all the latest discoveries in the art of teaching music. The school is divided into two departments; No. 1 is for beginners from 5 years or more and are taught the first three grades. Pupils come one hour each day. This is no kindergarten system but far superior. In No. 2 the grades are from 5 to 15. Here they graduate. Pupils take one or two lessons a week as they desire. No scholars will be permitted to remain in this school who do not study.

HOUTIN WRITES ON BIBLE STUDY

(Scripps News Association)

Rome, May 24—The Vatican has come into possession of the proofs of a new book by the Abbe Houtin, which will certainly arouse heated discussion both on account of the author and the subject matter. The book is entitled "The Biblical Question in the 20th Century." It will be remembered that Abbe Houtin wrote another book, entitled, "The Biblical Question in the 19th Century," which was widely read by students, but was on the Index Expurgatorius.

The new publication summarizes the Biblical discussions in the different countries recalling the famous lecture of Delitzsch, "Babel and Bible" and the famous letter of Emperor William, and gives also a full account of Abbe Loisy's theories. An important part of the work concerns the Biblical question in Rome, referring to the institution of the Biblical Commission and the attitude of Pope Pius X.

The last chapter of the book relates to the Biblical discussion in the English church, stating that in no other Christian Church has the Bible been so much studied as among English speaking Protestants. Abbe Houtin highly praises the scientific works of the English Protestants, saying they are of the "greatest utility, constituting long, fatiguing and expensive studies, courageously undertaken and loyally and rapidly carried out, even on subjects which in their nature seem reserved to the students of the Roman Catholic Church.

He cites as an example the Biblical dictionaries by Hastings and Cheyenne, which, he says, "represent a glory not only for the Established Church in England, but also for the Scottish Church and for the English Presbyterian Churches, which contributed to them." The general opinion in Vatican circles is, however, that the new book of Abbe Houtin will also be placed on the Index of forbidden books.
