Weshington D. C. May 24-The Navy Department has been materially benefited n its relations with the contractors who have been engaged on the $10,000,000 rejuvenation of the Naval Academy by pecial board which has been in committee for three years and which is composite the composite of the composi ed of Rear Admiral W. C. Field, U. S. N. retired; Commander Walter F. Worthingon, who is in charge of the engineer experimental station at the Naval Academy, and Civil Engineer A. C. Cunningham, who is attached to the bureau of vards and docks in the Navy Department, and who is recorder as well as momber of the board. This board has investigated the various claims of contractors, and has saved much expense for the govern ment and the contractors in settling dis putes involving extension of time, changes ordered by the department and damages Eight acres, 6 room house, barn, place fo the Navy Department would never reach chickens or hogs, orchard, all kinds o satisfactory settlement of some of the ruit and plenty of water. They Stand Alone.

Standing out in bold relief, all alone, and as a conspicuous example of openfrank and honest dealing with the sick and afflicted, are Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak, over-worked, debilitated, hervous, "run-down," pain-racked women, and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous remedy for weak stomach, indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, or billousness, all catarrinal affections whether of the stomach, bowels, kidneys, bladder, nasal passages throat, bronchia, or other mucous passages, also as an effective remedy for ad disc asse arising from thin, watery or impure blood, as serofulous and skill affections.

Each bottle of the above medicines for all diseases arising from thin, watery or impure blood, as serofulcus and skin affections.

Each bottle of the above medicines bears upon its wrapper a badge of honesty in the full list of ingredients composing it—printed in plots English. This trank and open publicity places these medicines in a class oil by themselves, and is the best guaranty of their merits. They cannot be classed as patent nor secret medicines for they are neither—being of kiniten composition.

Br. Pierce feels that he can afford to take the afficted into his full confidence and hay all the ingredients of his medicines freely before them because these ingredients are such as are emdorsed and most strongly praised by scores of the most eminent medical writers as cures for the diseases for which these medicines are recommended. Therefore, the affilted do not have to rely alone upon Dr. Pierce's recommendation as to the curstive value of his medicines for certain easily recognized diseases.

A glance at the printed formula on each bottle will show that no alcohol and no harmful or habit-forming drugs enter into Dr. Pience's medicines, they being wholly compounded of giveric extractions are regarded as sacredly confidential.

These are best and safest for the curs of most linguing, chronic diseases. Dr. R. V. Pierce can be consulted for the roots of native, American forest plants.
