WE CARRY MEATS

For a brief while only. Short for saying that we handle only fresh products. We sell so much beef, mutton, lamb, pork, and poultry that nothing stays on our premises long. Food for thought in that truthful statement. If you object to stale meats, let us have your orders.

LA GRANDE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

PROF. DAY, PRINCIPAL.
MRS. DAY, ASSISTANT.

This is one of the best musical institutions in the state, and that people in this city and valley are beginning to discover the advantage of this school. The system is the latest and most practical, and includes all the latest discoveries in the art of teaching music. The school is divided into two departments: No. 1 is for beginners from 8 years or more and are taught the first three grades. Pupils come one hour each day. This is no kindergarten system but far superior. In No. 2 the grades are from 3 to 15. Here they graduate. Pupils take one or two lessons a week as they desire. No scholars will be permitted to remain in this school who do not study.
Opposite the Foley House over the candy store. Phone 473.

NOT ONE REDEEMING THING

"Bob" Burdette:—I do not know one good thing about the saloon. It is an evil thing that has not one redeeming thing in its history to commend it to good men. It breaks the laws of God and man. It desecrates the Sabbath: it profanes the name of religion; it defies public order. It tramples under foot the tenderest feelings of humanity; it is a moral pestilence that blights the very atmosphere of town and country; it is a stain upon honesty; a blur upon purity; a clog upon progress; a check upon the nobler impulses; it is an incentive to falsehood, deceit and crime.

Search through the history of this hateful thing, and read one page over which some mother can bow her grateful head and thank God for all the saloon did for her boy. There is no such record. All its history is written in tears and blood, with sneers of shame and stains of grief and dark blots of disgrace.

Copied from an Orange Co., Cal. paper. The Farm Home says:

"A saloon can no more be run without using up boys than a flouring mill can be run without wheat or a sawmill without logs. The only question is, whose boys, your boys or mine—our boys or our neighbor's."

What mother is willing to give up her dear boys to feed these degradation mill's?

OSTEOPATHY FOR THE EYES

Alarming increase in the use of glasses upon the eyes of children, as well as adults, calls for agitation among osteopaths; physicians for the purpose of making known the immense value of osteopathic treatments to reach and stimulate the optic nerve. I have known of several cases where even a shock to the optic nerve has perfectly restored normal vision, and in one case I recall of very weak vision in a young woman who had worn glasses for nine years, the glasses were removed after seven treatments, and have never been required since although more than three years have elapsed since the last treatment was given. Not all cases can be cured, and perhaps few will be cured in so short a time; but nearly all should be helped and a good share cured by patient perseverance in treatment for a reasonable time. The vast number of young people—even children of very tender years—who are met upon the streets of large cities wearing glasses seems to me to present a large field for osteopathic practice if the availability of our treatments for functional derangement of vision were properly understood.—Helen De Landrecre, D. O.

THIS FOR MINE EVERY TIME

No more a muddled brain for mine I'll call for soda every time
Quench my thirst to my heart's content,
Save cash for clothes as well as rent
Treat my wife and children too
"Smile" with them, and "smile" with you.
All the popular drinks at Hill's soda fountain.

No fascination equals that of a clear brained, tender-hearted, lovable woman. Just as there is no picture like a beautiful girl. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea makes lovable women, beautiful girls 35 cents.
