NAVY IS OUT OF AMMUNITION

(Scripps News Association)
Washington D. C. June 2—Naval officers are surprised to see the popular interest they have awakened in the scarcity of the ordnance supplies by the letter presented by the chief of ordnance of the service. Real Admiral Mason. The latter was based on the reports submitted from a large number of sources, and is regarded by those who know the situation as not in the least too strongly expressed. It has been quite apparent that the supply of ammunition was being exhausted without the means of recuperation, and is already contemplated to omit next summer's target practice off the New England Coast. It becomes a question whether the man should be trained at their guns at the expense of the reserve supply of powder and shell, or target practice discontinued to the end that the ship magazines may have ammunition enough to meet emergency. It will not be sufficient to the needs of a case for Congress to make an emergency appropriation on the eve of trouble, for it takes months to get the powder, and nothing short of nine months time would be lost in obtaining ammunition which would be of any use. It is a startling fact, also, that no ship is able to fire her battery of big guns far more than thirty minutes in action, when the ammunition would be exhausted. It is hoped by the naval ordnance officers that the emphatic terms of Rear Admiral Mason's letter will have some effect upon the Senate Naval Committee and induce Congress to put back the $12,000,000 cut out of the bureau of estimates between the Navy Department and the House Naval Committees.

VOTE NUMBER 52
No candidate could have conducted a cleaner or fairer campaign for both the nomination and election, than has Col. Ivanhoe. But this is characteristic of the man. He believes and practices the virtue of attending strictly to his own business. He is tolerant of the rights and opinions of others, and jealous of his own rights and those of his clients. He is uninfluenced by local or class bias or prejudice, is able and fearless, and will be an ideal prosecuting officer. Do not overlook this number on the ballot, -52-.

WEAK HEARTS

are caused by indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of indigestion, you have no doubt had shortness of breath, rapid heart beats, heartburn or palpitation of the heart. Indigestion causes the stomach to expand—swell, and puff up against the heart. This crowds the heart and interferes with its action, and in the course of time the heart becomes diseased.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

digests what you eat, takes the strain off of the heart, and contributes nourishment, strength and health to every organ of the body. Cures indigestion, dyspepsia, sour stomach, inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the stomach and digestive tract, nervous dyspepsia and catarrh of the stomach.

After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles I am cured.

I had stomach trouble and was in a bad state as I had heart trouble with it. I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for about four months and it cured me.
