It is all over but the shouting.

The riders are up, the race is on and the winners will pass under the wire at 7 p. m. this evening.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat says the democratic press of Missouri has a big job ahead of it in trying to explain why resolutions indorsing the democratic administration of Governor Folk were defeated.

Packers who feel themselves wronged and aggrieved by the revolting charges of Upton Sinclair have their legal recourse. They can prosecute Sinclair for criminal libel. An expectant public wonders why there are no libel suits.

The ballot this election is a large one and owing to the fact of so many amendments and proposed laws the counting will be slow. Results in close contests will not be known until late in the afternoon tomorrow. However, the winners in most instances will be known by noon.

If constant reading of the secular press had created the impression that the well-to-do were thoughtless and the rich selfish, a great public disaster like the San Francisco horror only was needed to show that this is a great world of sympathy and generous assistance ready always for those in distress. The American people are the grandest people on the face of the globe. Since the great San Francisco calamity we all realize just a little more than ever before the brotherhood of man.—Modern Woodmen.

40 YEARS GRAFT

In the railroad rate investigation in Kansas City, one prominent shipper testified that his firm had been receiving rebates of 40 per cent for the last twenty five years. And so it goes in the investigation all over the country. This is strange indeed, considering the fact that the railroads discontinued the rebate habit some time ago.

A Mountain of Gold

could not bring as much happiness to Mrs. Lucia Wilke, of Caroline, Wis., as did one 25c box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, when it completely cured a running sore on her leg, which had tortured her 23 long years. Greatest antiseptic healer of Piles, Wounds, and sores. 25c.—NEWLIN DRUG CO.

CLEVER AND CAUSTIC COMMENT

Anyway, let us hope the president won't come down too hard on the dynamite trust.—Baltimore Sun.

"I shouldn't have voted for the rate bill," says La Follette, "except that—" Post mortems—post mortems!—Cleveland Leader.

The Balkan war cloud is reported to be again rising. The Balkan war cloud must be a part of the solar system.—Toledo Blade.

All the reporters on the case sympathize with Josephine Terranova—and they are pretty accurate jurymen.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Admiral Rjstvensky has resigned from the Russian navy. He practically did that last summer when he met Admiral Togo.

In these days of alleged government by injunction, we heartily favor a decree which shall enjoin a woman from wearing a dress that buttons down the back.—London Star.

Booker T. Washington prefers the word "negro" with which to designate his race. Another evidence of the common sense possessed by this remarkable man.—Toledo Blade.

It is estimated that a penny changes hands 125,000 times during its life, and it is also believed that the ones Russell Sage gets hold of manage to get a little rest between changes.—Washington Post.

Edward Rosewater, the Omaha Bee man, wants to be a senator, but there are certain "esteemed contemporaries" in the Nebraska metropolis unkind enough to assert that the United States senate is no blooming apiary. This is supposed to be a stinger.—Los Angeles News.

Much is heard about the power of trusts, and there is no better illustration of this power than the newspaper trust owned by Hearst. He has manufactured a machine to do his bidding. He is a factor that must be reckoned with, a factor that may easily destroy the Democratic party.—Springfield Union.
