PRESIDENT'S DOWNFALL IS PREDICTED

(Scripps News Association)
Chicago, June 5.—President Roosevelt is to meet his political destruction, according to plans of the rackets and other trusts which he has been prosecuting. They say he is too radical and can not be trusted, and therefore they have combined to bring about his political downfall. They further accuse him of ruining many great industries.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH

(Scripps News Association)
Buffalo, June 5.—Early this morning an unknown man walked into the Niagara river one hundred feet above the brink of the falls. He was swept toward the precipice but managed to grab hold of a ledge only ten feet from the brink. A policeman saw him and attempted to throw him a rope which he was unable to reach. Later the fire department placed a ladder near where he was and two men crawled out and saved him from almost certain death. When brought to the shore he was entirely exhausted. He was taken to the police station where he refused to give his name.
