TO DISCUSS THE FLOUR BUSINESS

(Scripps News Association) Memphis, Tenn., June 6-The eleventh annual convention of the Frater ity of Operative Millers of America opened here oday and more than five hundred delegates from all parts of the United States. Canada and Mexico, are in attenuance The present convention of the steadily growing organization promises to be the most interesting and important in its history.

Not only operating millers are represented in the convention, bus there are also many prominent representatives of co-ordinate branches of the milling industry, including agents for mill products, grain elevator men and some of the big bakers of the country.

Many important matters will come up for discussion, among them measures for promoting the trade, improved methods of milling, means of securing a reduction of the rates of transportation and other matters of a similar nature. In connection with the convention and ex! ibition of flours and grains is held.

(Scripps News Association) Hot Springs, Ark., June 6-There is not much to be done by the delegates to the Democratic State Convention, which will convene here today. Congressman John S. Little, who carried the State Democratic primaries over Attorney General Robbert L. Rogers and S. Q. Sevier will, of course be the Democratic, nominees for Governor. Gov. Jefferson Davis will probably be nominated for United States Senator and X. O. Pindall the candidate for Attorney General. It is Scripps News Association) Kingston, Ont., June 6-- Today is the fifteenth anniversary of the death of Sir John A. MacDonald. P. C., C. M. G., Canada's Grand Old Man and throughout the Dominion his memory is honored today by everyone, without distinction or party lines. A number of prominent Conservatives drove to Cataraqui Cemetery this morning and decorated the grave of the deceased statesman. Several addresses were delivered, in which a touching tribute was paid to the memory of the great leader, who is considered one of the greatest men Canada has ever produced. Memorial meetings will be held today in nearly every city in the Dominion.

S. D. BRADSHAW DIES.

(Scripps News Association) San Fransisco, June 6 -- S. D. Bradshaw, general superintendent of the Wels Fargo Express Company, died at his home at Alameda last night. He is one of the best known express men on the coast, having been identified with the Wells Fargo Company for the past fifty vears.
