GRAND MASONIC CENTENNIAL

(Scripps News Association)

Wilmington, Del., June 7—Prominent men in Masonry from all parts of the country are assembled here to take part in the celebration which will be held here today in honor of the one hundredth anniversary of the Grand Lodge of Delaware, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons.

The Centenial exercises will be held this afternoon at the Opera House, which forms part of the Masonic Temple. Nearly all Master Masons in the district will be present. Past Master Howell S. England of Wilmington, will read the Centennial Ode, written by himself for the occasion and addresses will be delivered by United States Senator Dolliver, of Iowa, City Solicitor John L. Kinsey, of Philadelphia, and Grand Master Handy.

Among the prominent visitors who are here to take part in the celebration are the Grand Lodge officers of Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey and the District of Columbia. In the evening the Masons will be escorted by the St. John's Commandery, Knights Templar, from Masonic Temple to Turner Hall, where a dinner will be served to the members of the Grand Lodge and invited guests. The principal speaker at the banquet will be Speaker Joseph G. Cannon, of the National House of Representatives.

GAY TIME FOR ARKANSAW TRAVELERS

(Scripps News Association)

Little Rock, Ark., June 7—The three days convention of the Arkansaw Travelers opens here today and it is safe to say that there will be more life and fun in this city during those three days than it has seen for many a day. The headquarters at the Captial Hotel, where the delegates are to register and to receive their badgee, was opened early this morning At eight o'clock the reception committees and bands met in front of the hotel and arranged to go to the various stations to receive the arriving delegates and escort them to headquarters. Every train brought several hundred delegates, of whom many were accompanied by their ladies and by noon the vicinity of the Captal Hotel was crowded with visitors One of the bands gave an open air concert.

THE CZARINA'S BIRTHDAY

(Scripps News Association)

St. Petersburg, June 7.—The whole city is decorated and beflagged today in honor of the birthday of the Empress. There was no attempt to make the celebration a State event, although the Czarina received the members of her household and the members of the Cabinent who offered their congratulations. There was the customary review of troops and the firing of a salute, but no popular demonstration.

Postmaster Robbed

G. W. Fouts, Postmaster at Riverton, Ia., nearly lost his life and was robbed of all comfort, according to his letter, which says: "For 20 years I had chronic liver complaint, which led to such a severe case of jaundice that even my finger nails turned yellow; when my doctor prescribed Electric Bitters; which cured me and have kept me well for eleven years." Sure cure for Biliousness, Neuralgia, Weakness and all Stomach, Liver, Kidney and Bladder derangements. A wonderful Tonic. NEWLIN DRUG CO.
