THE PEOPLE IT

There were few who thought Jonathan Bourne could win. But he appealed to the people, and he won. He who wants to do business, these times, will stay or stick close to the people. It is the key to all success, in the future time,--Oregonian.

NEXT LEGISLATURE

The next Oregon Legislature will contain six Democrats only, five of them in the Senate. This will be the smallest Democratic representation in many years. Of the 30 members of the State Senate, 14 are holdovers. Of the 15 elected to the Senate this year, 7 signed Statement No. 1 and 2 pledged themselves to support the Republican voters' choice for U. S. Senator. Of the 60 members of the House, 39 signed Statement No. 1, and six pledged themselves to vote for the Republican voters' choice for U. S. Senator. In other words, since Bourne, a Republican, has received the popular vote, there are 54 members of the Legislature pledged to his support. It requires 49 to elect.
