

BARGAIN DAY

AT

The Golden Rule Store

In former years this mammoth store has "saved up" as it were, all its odds and ends, and remnants, and at the end of the season put them on sale in one lot. After careful consideration of this proposition we have decided that the interests of our patrons can best be served by placing on sale one day of each week goods of this class and such other "special bargains" as we may from time to time be able to secure.

Friday, June 8

WILL BE THE FIRST THESE GREAT DAYS. AT THAT TIME WE WILL OFFER AT EXCEPTIONALLY LOW PRICES ALL ODDS AND ENDS, AND REMNANTS OF SEASONAL GOODS.

IN THE LOT WILL BE

REMNANTS of Calicoes, Percales, Ginghams, Lawns, Swiss, Summer Suitings, Toweling, Laces, Embroideries, Ribbons, Waistings, Etc.

ODDS AND ENDS in Neckwear, Belts, Hand Bags, Shoes, Corsets, Gloves, Handkerchiefs, Weists, Stationery, Lace Curtains, Books, Glassware, Crockery, Men's Ties, Shirts, Hosiery, Hats, Underwear, Collars' and innumerable other things.

IN ADDITION TO THIS The Great "June White Sale" Will Be Continued With Unabated Vigor

James Ireland, of the Eastern Oregon Colonizing Company is transacting business in Summerville today.

Mrs. E. Christofferson and children left this morning for Salt Lake City on a visit.

The Misses Imogen and Ruth Russe, who have been attending the St. Paul school at Walla Walla, have returned.

Rev. B. F. Meredith pastor of the Methodist church in this city left this morning for Flora, Walla Walla county. During his absence Sunday Presiding Elder J. D. Gillilan will preach.

L. M. Johnson, the Imbler real estate man and his family expect to leave tonight for Manti Utah, where they will visit friends and relatives the next month or six weeks.

Dennis Madden who underwent an operation for appendicitis a few weeks ago returned from Portland on his way to his home near Elgin. Mr. Madden is looking well considering what he went through.

Do not forget the social dance Friday evening at the Commercial club. Good music will be furnished and a royal good time is assured. All ladies and gentlemen are invited.

Rev. Meredith left today for Walla Walla valley points. He will go as far as Flora. Presiding Elder J. D. Gillilan will occupy the Methodist pulpit during his absence.

The building used for years as the home of the La Grande National bank will soon be no more. Workmen are now engaged in razing it and it will be replaced by a more imposing structure.

The St. Peters Guild will meet at the home of Mrs. J. H. Aiken next Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The annual election of officers will take place and other important business will come before the Guild. A full attendance is desired. Mrs. Mac Wood, president.

The official canvass of the election returns is being made today. The Board consists of County Clerk J. B. Gilham, Justice of Peace J. E. Hough and Justice of Peace C. W. P. Ellsworth. They expect to have the canvass completed some time this afternoon.

Mr. Mac Lennan has a souvenir of the San Francisco fire when he purchased the Red Cross drug store he gave a note, and when he paid it found it had found its way to San Francisco, and had gone through the fire. While the reading was plain, the note was simply a charred flr. It is evident that thousands of dollars of commercial paper was totally destroyed.

PRECINCT OFFICERS

Justice John E. Hough was reelected Justice of the peace and J. W. Favik con stable for the La Grande precincts. Tomorrow the canvassing board will have completed the official count and we will give the precinct officers elected in the county.

CREAM SEPARATORS

"STOP!" and think before you buy a separator. There are many things to be considered in the purchase of a cream separator. You want the lightest running machine on the market. You want the machine that is the easiest to wash and keep clean, you also want the machine that will produce all the butter fat. And above all you want a durable machine so that you won't be continually paying for repairs.

Now the famous Empire Separator is the machine you want as it has all these advantages over every other machine on the market.

Any company can make claims but let us show you the Separator that makes good
