

BARGAIN DAY

AT

The Golden Rule Store

In former years this mammoth store has "saved up" as it were, all its odds and ends, and remnants, and at the end of the season put them on sale in one lot. After careful consideration of this proposition we have decided that the interests of our patrons can best be served by placing on sale one day of each week goods of this class and such other "special Bargains" as we may from time to time be able to secure.

Friday, June 8

WILL BE THE FIRST THESE GREAT DAYS. AT THAT TIME WE WILL OFFER AT EXCEPTIONALLY LOW PRICES ALL ODDS AND ENDS, AND REMNANTS OF SEASONAL GOODS.

IN THE LOT WILL BE

REMNANTS of Calicoes, Percales, Gingham, Lawns, Swiss, Summer Suitings, Toweling, Laces, Embroideries, Ribbons, Waistings, Etc.

ODDS AND ENDS In Neckwear, Belts, Hand Bags, Shoes, Corsets, Gloves, Handkerchiefs, Weists, Stationery, Lace Curtains, Books, Classware, Crockery; Men's Ties, Shirts, Hosiery, Hats, Underwear, Collars, and innumerable other things.

IN ADDITION TO THIS The Great "June White Sale" Will Be Continued With Unabated Vigor

RASCH-KINSEY.

One of the first of the June weddings in Baker City, was that of Miss Harriet Kinsey and Mr. Fred A. Rasch of Portland. The bride is one of Baker's most popular and beautiful young ladies and well known in La Grande having spent her childhood here, her father being one of the pioneers. The wedding was performed in the Presbyterian church which was beautiful decorated in greens and flowers, lilies and carnations being used in profusion on the platform and altar, banking the organ with the same.

Preceding the wedding march Miss Gertrude Tice sang in her rich contralto "Promise Me" and as Miss Anna McKay played the wedding march the bridal party advanced to the altar. The ushers were Messrs. Mel Rider and Doctor Flower, and the bridesmaids, Misses Louise Geiser and Jessie Gillilan. The matron of honor was Mrs. Elizabeth Corgriff a sister of the bride. The bride on her father's arm met the groom and his best man, Mr. Grover Rasch at the altar. The ring ceremony was used by Rev. J.

R. N. Ball as the bridal party left the church Miss Tice sang, "Thou Art Like Unto a Flower."

The wedding reception was held at the home of Mrs. J. Cosgriff. The handsome rooms were a mass of flowers and ferns, pink and white prevailing through out. During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Rasch received and were congratulated by a large number of friends. In the dining room an elegant buffet luncheon was served and in all the affair was most brilliant and artistic. Mr. and Mrs. Rasch will remain in Baker a few days the guest of friends before going to their future home in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shea of La Grande were among the wedding guests.

CREAM SEPARATORS

"STOP!" and think before you buy a separator. There are many things to be considered in the purchase of a cream separator. You want the lightest running machine on the market. You want the machine that is the easiest to wash and keep clean, you also want the machine that will produce all the butter fat. And above all you want a durable machine so that you won't be continually paying for repairs.

Now the famous Empire Separator is the machine you want as it has all these advantages over every other machine on the market.

Any company can make claims but let us show you the Separator that makes good
