POTATOES & HAY

We have a large supply of strictly choice large potatoes in stock, which we offer at very low price.

We still have a large amount of hay - all grades - in our house which we offer at $12.00 per ton. The hay market is very dull at the present time and we want to unload same.

We have to arrive a car load of Straw berry boxes, in about a week. Our price on them will be very low.

We are in the market for all the eggs that are offered and we pay highest market price, spot cash, for them.

Having been elected a Justice of the Supreme Court, Judge Eakin will resign the Circuit Judgeship of this district within the next six months. This will create a vacancy in the Circuit Judgeship that will be filled by appointment of Governor Chamberlain. The appointee will hold the office until the general election, which will be held in June, 1908. While the office of Circuit Judge is a judicial, and not a political one, it is probable that the appointee will be a democrat. We do not know who will be aspirants, but there may be several. Dan. W. Sheehan of Enterprise may be an aspirant, but we do not know that he will be. J. D. Slater may aspire, but having had a twist at the district attorneyship recently, he may not enter the arena. It has been suggested that T. H. Crawford may be a candidate, but this is not certain. Through his influence largely, the governor appointed his son district attorney of this district, and it is hardly probable that the governor would be willing now to appoint the father Judge. Not all the plums on the gubernatorial tree for this district should be given to one family. William M. Ramsey may be an aspirant, but we have no authority to announce that either of the lawyers above named will be aspirants for the judicial vacancy. Mr. Ramsey is almost a native Oregonian, having been a resident of this state since infancy. He has long been recognized as one of the best lawyers in this state, and he has had an extensive practice in the Willamette valley and he has been a resident of this county the past four years. He was elected county Judge of Yamhill county at the age of twenty-three. He has held the office of mayor in the cities of Salem and McMinnville. His fitness for high judicial positions has been recognized by his party several times. In 1898, he was nominated by the State Conventions of the Democratic, the Populist, and Silver Republican parties for the Justice of the Supreme Court of this state. He made the race against Honorable Frank A. Moore, and he ran ahead of the majority of his associates, and carried Union County by a good majority, but was beaten. In 1900, his party again nominated him for Justice of the Supreme Court, but he declined the nomination. When Governor Chamberlain was considering the matter of the appointment of a Judge of the Supreme Court to succeed Justice Wolverton, resigned, he gave out publicly the statement that he would appoint either Judge Hailey or Mr. Ramsey and said that both were excellent material for that position. This fact shows that the governor considers Judge Ramsey good material for the highest judicial position in the state. The appointment of Mr. Ramsey would doubtless meet with the approval of the people of this district without regard to party considerations. He would doubtless discharge the duties of the Judgeship with ability, efficiency, and faithfulness. This is an important office, and should be given to a man of character, and excellent qualifications.

The tremor caused by reports in Washington that one or two state courts of the West had ruled that the Government at present had no authority to prevent stock grazing on forest reserve, or enforce regulations requiring pay for the license or of a prohibitory nature, is not seriously disturbing the Department of Agriculture officials who believe that the interpretation of the law would be upheld by the United States Supreme court. If the matter is agitated materially, arrangements will in all probability be made for an appeal to the highest tribunal. Important work would be upset by such a finding as that reported being sustained on appeal.
