AMUSEMENTS

WAS IT A SHOW?

The seating capacity of the Suttun Tent show was taxed last evening, for one or two acts. After the spectators saw how really cruel the villain was, and how his every act was frustrated by the heroine Tress appearing on the scene at the opportune moment with a toy pistol, and the general inability of all the so called actors to entertain, the people silently stole away.

Many children were attracted to the tent by the advertisements which stated that Doctor somebody would present an animal performance as a specialty, but it happened that it would cost ten cents extra and few endured the last acts. The children expected who to see the dog and pony performance, were presented in the first act with an old hag handing out the booze and supposed ruffians playing cards. Vulgar oaths were numerous and many parents gathered their little ones and hurried away.

Advance notices informed the show loving public that the Sutton Company played in a water-proof tent. However the tent appeared as though it had seen all the horrors of the San Francisco disaster.

Eiler's Rip Wan Winkle.

Eiler's big scenic Rip Van Winkle Co. with band and orchestra traveling in two special cars, which is said to be one of the best shows on the road, will appear in a tent Saturday June 16.

GOLDEN WEDDING

Captain A. C. Smith and wife celebrated their Golden Wedding last Sunday at their home in this city, at which time all of their children, except one, and all of their grand children, except one, and a few intimated friends were present. Mr. and Mrs. Smith received many valuable and useful presents and the day was delightfully spent. They were married at Benton, Illinois, June 3, 1856, and have ten children, three sons and seven daughters, besides twenty-one grand children and two great grand children. In 1862 they moved to Oregon, locating in the Grande Ronde valley where they resided until 1878 when they moved to this valley and where they have resided continuously since. They have been prominently connected with the history of this and Union county and have witnessed the growth of the country from a frontier settlement, with a handful of settlers annoyed and harrassed by the Indians and enduring all the hardships and discomforts incident thereto, to its present condition. They have a host of very warm friends who wish them many years of enjoyment of their comfortable old age.—Wallowa Democrat.

H., says: "I was two years in Cuba and two years in the Philippines, and being subject to colds, I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which kept me in perfect health. And now in New Hampshire we find it the best medicine in the world for coughs, colds, bronchial troubles and all lung diseases. Guaranteed at Newlin Drug Co. Price 50 cts. and $1.00.
