SPORTS

WILL PLAY AT ELGIN JULY FOURTH

La Grande will play two games with Elgin, at Elgin on the Third and Fourth of July. This insures a good attraction for Elgin and many are planning to attend the second game.

TEMPANY COMING HERE

Manager Heisner secured an addition to his team in the shape of Tempany, the former manager of the Walla Walla team, and McAllister another member of the same team. While it is not certain that they will make this their home they will be on hand to play with the team when there is a game on. Both men are too well known in Eastern Oregon and Washington to need any introduction, and Heisner is to be complimented on securing these all around players.

HUNTINGTON NEXT

According to present plans Huntington will be seen here next Sunday. The little railro d town has defeated everything in its part of the state and is now coming North looking for more victims.

OUT OF BUSINESS.

Ontario, June 12.—M. Jacobsgard, formerly of Baker City, but for the past six months in the wholesale liquor business in Ontario, was put out of business completely by the county going prohibition. He closed up shop and left.

LARGE SALE

Last week F. D. McCully sold a band of yearling sheep for $5.00 per head to Peter Beaudoin to be delivered after shearing. It is estimated that the wool from these yearlings will bring $2.00 per fleece, thus bring the price up to $5.00.—Joseph Herald.

HOSPITAL IS FULL

The St. Elizabeth's hospital is now about full, there being but one or two rooms vacant. The patients are all doing well and are on the rapid road to recovery.—Herald.
