RINEHART FAMILY REUNION

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rinehart, of Summerville, Union county, stopped over in the city last night on their way to Mayville, Gilliam county, to attend the annual reunion of the Rinehart family of Oregon which will be held at the home W. J. Edwards, near Mayville, this year.

The family of Louis and Elizabeth Rinehart, who came from Iowa to Willamette valley in 1854, holds a family reunion at some point in the state each year. Three years ago the reunion was held at the home of J. H. Rinehart, near Summerville, 95 of the family being present. Two years ago it was held at the same place with 127 present. Last year a meeting was held at the Lewis and Clark fair and this year the descendants will assemble at the home of Mr. Edwards a grandson of the pioneers, near Mayville. It is one of the most prominent pioneer families in the state.—Pendleton E. O.

THE COMFORT

Of the ladies is well taken care of by us. We have succeeded in our efforts to make our restaurant the best place for the ladies to have their meals, and have tastefully arranged the different things to add attractiveness to the place, and make the surroundings pleasant.

OUR RESTAURANT

Provides meals that are beautiful and refreshing. The excellence of our cookery has been attested by the favorable comments of the many ladies that patronize us. If you would stop at our restaurant your nostrils would dilate at the pleasant odors our cookery sends forth. It would tickle your palate and after the meal you'd smack your lips and say, "That meal was very tasty."
