SUCCESSFUL PICTURES

Stewards opera house was comfortably filled last evening to see the moving pictures of the San Francisco Earthquake disaster. The pictures were good and every one was well satisfied. It would be impossible to enter into a detailed description of the hundreds of views, but it is only just to the management of the company presenting the pictures, to state that the views are all that has been claimed for them. Every man woman and child in the city should attend the exhibition tonight simply as a matter of education. New views will be presented tonight. You cannot afford to miss the entertainment.
