ANARCHISTS UNEARTHED IN PORTLAND

(Observer Special)
Portland, Oregon, June 21—In the municipal court this morning, Walter Sealaski claimed to have been invited to join what the government secret agents believe to be one of the most radical anarchistic societies in America, and testified on the stand that a plot has been laid in this city during the months past for the assassination of President Roosevelt. He further testified that funds had been raised in this city for the purpose of sending John Przywara, a Russian nihilist and also a member of this society to Washington to execute the murder. The formulated plans for killing the President miscarried because of the international dissensions which have arisen within the society.

MEETING OF THE CITY COUNCIL

It was a case sweetness long drawn out at the council meeting last night for it was after 1 o'clock before adjournment was declared. However considerable business was transacted.

City attorney F. S. Ivanhoe filed his resignation to take effect July 1 which was accepted, but no action or discussion was entered into regarding his successor. Bids for the delivery of 250 cords of the 500 cords advertised for were awarded to James Warnstaff and Mr. Colewell, Price $3.50 per cord.

J. L. Mars was awarded the contract for repairing the side walks on Fourth St. The ways and means committee reported adversely on the proposition submitted by the Grande Ronde Electric Co. to do the city pumping and the report was accepted.

Accountant Leon Stoddard submitted his report and recommendation in systematizing the city books and was given authority to order necessary books and stationery.

The council authorized the Mayor and Recorder to enter into a contract with the Grande Ronde Electric Co. for 30 arc lights, at the rate of $8 per month. This will necessitate a new system which the company expects to inaugurate about September.

A committee was authorized to take the proper steps toward refunding $30,000 of outstanding bonds. The idea is to refund those now drawing 6 per cent with 5 per cent bonds.

The Mayor and Recorder were instructed to accept the O. R. & N. proposition to change their deed to the old city hall property so the same might be used as a city park. The present building will be sold to the highest bidder and the ground soon improved for park purposes.

The last important action was the final reading of the ordinance raising saloon licenses to $1,000. Councilman Bartlett offered an amendment which left the obligations of the bondsmen similar to present but this was voted down and the original ordinance passed. Those voting for it being Carr, Fowler, Meyers, Richardson and Williamson. Opposed Dunn, Bartlett and Gardiner. The ordinance will be submitted to the Mayor tomorrow. He has five days from the passage to either approve or veto.

A license was granted to J. E. Steinbeck to open a saloon in the old State location.

MURDERERS' DEN DISCOVERED

(Scripps News Association)
Zuerich, Switzerland, June 21—Near Ruttli, a village in the Zuerich Oberland, the police have made a highly sensational discovery. For a long time a remote farm house was occupied by a family named Oberholzer, consisting of two brothers and a sister. For some time evil rumors concerning the Oberholzers had been floating about and they were accordingly shunned and feared by the other villagers.

A number of robberies had been committed in the neighborhood, but although grave suspicion rested on the recalcitrant brothers, their guilt could not be brought home to them. Unwelcome visitors to their farm were received with gunshots, and so they were left unmolested until a few days ago when the authorities found cause to search the house. An immense quantity of stolen goods was found but worse things were discovered later. A wall excited suspicion owing to its peculiar shape and when an opening was made a rough coffin was found enclosing a female skeleton with clothes still adhering to it. Its identity has not yet been established but that some awful crimes have been committed in the house appears to be now practically certain.

KILLED MAN IN SELF DEFENSE

(Scripps News Association)
St. Louis June 21—Miss Bett Arnold aged 28 has confessed to the police that she killed F. L. Phelps a boarder at her house who was found dead last Wednesday night.
