LOCAL ITEMS

Superintendent E. E. Bragg, is in Portland on business this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKenna, arrived yesterday morning from San Francisco. The band will give their first open air concert tomorrow evening in the public square by the fountain.

Walter M. Pierce will soon move his family to his farm north of Island City for the summer.

John Anthony and family left this morning for Rock Creek where they will spend the summer at their country home.

There will be plenty of seats and drinking water in many places on the principal streets on the Fourth of July.

Mrs. William Baker and daughter Lizzie of Summerville are La Grande visitors today.

J. T. Williamson left this afternoon for a trip up the river to look after some timber land clients.

Fishing parties are the order of the day. Some good catches have been reported but as a rule the streams are too high.

Mrs. Bert Benton and Miss Combstock of Cove were in the city today visiting friends and relatives. They will return home tomorrow.

O. O. Howell, of Imbler was a La Grande visitor today. Mr. Howell reports Imbler still on the boom.

The financial showing made by the published statements of the banks of this city is exceptionally good for this time of the year. Wait until the money comes in for the bounteous crops that are now assured. There will be money to burn this year.

Mr. J. Heidenrich returned last evening from a trip through the Goldendale county. Mr. Heidenrich has done considerable traveling during the past two years, but each time he returns he comes home better satisfied with La Grande and Union county.

Postmaster Richey states that while he has not been officially notified, but will, that the salary of the La Grande post office will be increased from $2,200 to $2,500. The receipts of the office from March 1905 to March 1906 have increased $1,000. La Grande is growing; every year, the volume of business in all lines grow greater.

Dr. W. A. Wise, of Portland, who has purchased the Reavis Bros. dental parlors is in the city. You will see his advertisement in this issue. He is here for business in fact is a thorough business man. The public will find Dr. Sturdevant, the manager a pleasant gentleman to meet.

THE COMFORT

Of the ladies is well taken care of by us. We have succeeded in our efforts to make our restaurant the best place for the ladies to have their meals, and have tastefully arranged the different things to add attractiveness to the place, and make the surroundings pleasant.

OUR RESTAURANT

Provides meals that are beautiful and refreshing. The excellence of our cookery has been attested by the favorable comments of the many ladies that patronize us. If you would stop at our restaurant your nostrils would dilate at the pleasant odors our cookery sends forth. It would tickle your palate and after the meal you'd smack your lips and say, "That meal was very tasty."

MOVING MY FURNITURE STORE

AT LAST THE OPPORTUNITY GAME. For many months I have realized the necessity of securing larger quarters for my increasing business. I have now secured the two large rooms on the corner of Adams Avenue and Elm street, the Anson Brick, where, in a few days I will be able to display one of the best general lines of furniture and Carpets in Union county. Will be pleased to have you call at my new place of business. This is going to be a prosperous year for all and we have prepared to be a leader in supplying the furniture wants of this county
