SEVERAL POLITICAL CONVENTIONS

(Scripps News Association)
Portland, Me. June 27—The Republican State Convention of this State was called to order at the City Hall before eleven o'clock this forenoon. The principal business before the convention is the selection of a candidate for Governor, but the convention will be of even greater importance in a national way, by the fact that Speaker Cannon, of the National House of Representatives, will appear before the convention this afternoon and will deliver an address in which he will sound the keynote for the Republican campaign of this year.

The number of delegates at this convention is 1408 and it will require 705 votes to insure the nomination of a candidate for Governor.
PENNSYLVANIA DEMOCRAT CONVENTION

Harrisburg, Pa. June 27—Probably never before in the history of the State has the political situation been more complicated and uncertain as just now. It is doubtful whether the Democratic State convention, which met here this afternoon, will simplify matters and bring more cleanness in the political situation. Three State tickets have already been named in this State and, if the convention, which is now in session, here should decide to put up a separate ticket of its own, there will be four and great confusion in the ranks of both principal parties in the bargain.

The Prohibitionists named a ticket on the supposition that the Democrats would endorse it and placed State Treasurer William H. Berry at the head of it. The Lincoln Republicans, the so-called reform wing of the party, put up a ticket headed by Lewis Emery, jr., a veteran fighter against the Standard Oil Company. The regular, or so-called machine Republicans, of whom Senator Penrose is the leader, have nominated a ticket headed by Edwin S. Stuart, former Mayor of Philadelphia.

During the last few weeks various efforts were made to start a movement in favor of a fusion. The prohibition branch of the Democrats urged the endorsement of Berry by the regular Democratic convention, while the reform element favored the endorsement of the Lincoln party candidate for governor. It seems, however, that a considerable part of the Democratic party does not favor fusion with any other party, but insists upon the nomination of a straight Democratic ticket. Col. Guffy, the leader of the party in this State made many efforts to restore peace and harmony among the various factions, with a view of inducing them to agree upon a candidate to head the straight Democratic at the coming campaign. His efforts were futile, however, and when the convention was called to order this forenoon, the situation was practically unchanged and the party apparently as from a compromise as ever.

Former Mayor Vance McCormick, of Harrisburg, is strongly pushed for the gubernatorial nomination and is considered one of the strongest candidates whom the Democrats could place at the head of their ticket, but it remains to be seen whether the convention will see fit to bury the hatchet and accept McCormick as compromise candidate. It is considered practically out of the question that either Berry or Emery will be endorsed. Should the Democrats nominate McCormick, State Treasurer Berry will withdraw from the race and will not permit his name to lead the Prohibitionist's ticket.

WISCONSIN DEMOCRATS FOR BRYAN

(Scripps News Association)
Milwaukee, Wis. June 27—It has been announced on good authority that the Democratic State Convention of Wisconsin, which opened here this morning, will declare itself for Bryan as the next Democratic presidential candidate. The Wisconsin Democrats are by no means silverites, but they seem to argue that the silver issue is dead and buried and that, aside from that issue, Bryan is a safe man to be at the head of the nation.

HOOD'S TEXAS BRIGADE'S REUNION

(Scripps News Association)
Somerville, Tex. June 27—The annual reunion of Hood's Texas Brigade opened here today and several thousand visitors from all parts of the State are here to take part in the reunion, which will last two days. An interesting program has been prepared for the event and almost every hour will bring some pleasant surprises and entertaining features.
