ANIVERSARY OF GUTEAU'S CRIME

Twenty-five years ago today, on July 2, 1881, President James J. Garfield, the twentieth President of the United States, was shot and mortally wounded by Charles J. Guiteau, a disappointed office seeker, while at the railway station of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad at Washington. After lingering for several months in Washington and later at Elberon, N. Y., President Garfield died on September 19, of the same year. His body is buried in Lake View Cemetery in Cleveland. Although a quarter of a century has passed since that memorable day the tragedy is by no means forgotten.
President Garfield was born in Orange Township, Cuyahoga county, Ohio, Nov. 19, 1831. He entered Williams college Massachusetts, in 1854, and was graduated with distinction in 1856. In 1859 he was elected to the senate of Ohio, having returned to his native state after his graduation. In the War of the Rebellion he was first colonel of the Forty-second Ohio regiment and was afterward raised to the rank of major-general for services at Chickamauga. In September 1863 he was elected to Congress and resigned his army commission. He served until 1880 when he was chosen U. S. Senator. In the same year he was nominated for the Presidency and was elected. It was only a few months after his inauguration that Garfield was shot.

A BUSY SESSION

No congress ever passed as many general laws for the people as a whole, as the first half of the 59th, which adjourned Saturday. The following may be cited as the most important bills passed.
The railroad rate bill.
The pure food law.
Meat-inspection law.
Naturalization law.
Denatured alcohol tax law (repeated).
Lock canal at Panama.
Consular service reform.
Appropriation bill reform.
Largest battleship authorized.
Employers' liability bill.

We now have a good start for a lively progressive city, with more payrolls than any city of anything like our size in the Inland Empire. Let the good work go on. Let us all pull for a greater La Grande and Union county.

The election fraud indictments in Multnomah show conclusively that the election laws should be changed to the extent that voters must register within the specified time for registering, if not they should not be permitted to vote.

It is evident that before it is possible for Union county to contain a dense population, which it is capable of supporting, that the present large land holdings must be divided and subdivided. This will not be brought about in its most exemplified form until large tracts of our valley land is brought under irrigation. This will come in time but never lose an opportunity to help bring this condition about. Ten years ago the suggestion that this valley needed irrigation would have received little consideration but the past few years has demonstrated that land values can be doubled and trebled through irrigation, as a result all now see the necessity. That is, as much can be raised on forty acres of irrigated land as now is possible on eighty.

Today the Local Option law which carried in eight counties in the state, at the recent election, goes into effect. The principal cities which went dry under the law are Eugene and Albany. The results of this phase of the new condition in Oregon will be closely watched by the residents of other counties of the state, as these counties will prove conclusively whether or not the people as a whole will adopt or reject prohibition, as a basis of future action.

FACTS IN NATURE.

Not Only Do We Get Inspiration From Nature, But Health as Well.

For people who are run-down and nervous; who suffer from indigestion or dyspepsia, headache, biliousness, or torpid liver; coated tongue with bitter taste in the morning and poor appetite, it becomes necessary to turn to some tonic or strengthener which will assist Nature and help them to get on their feet and put the body into its proper condition. It is becoming more and more apparent that Nature's most valuable health-giving agents are to be found in forest plants and roots.

Nearly forty years ago, Dr. R. V. Pierce, now consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y., discovered that by scientifically extracting and combining certain medicinal principles from native roots, taken from our American forests, he could produce a medicine which was marvelously efficient in curing cases of blood disorder and liver and stomach trouble as well as many other chronic, or lingering ailments. This concentrated extract of Nature's vitality he named "Golden Medical Discovery." It purifies the blood by putting the stomach and liver into healthy condition, thereby helping the digestion and assimilation of food which feeds the blood. Thereby it cures weak stomach, indigestion, torpid liver, or biliousness, and kindred derangements.

If you have coated tongue, with bitter or bad taste in the morning, frequent headaches, feel weak, easily tired, aches or pain in side, back gives out easily and aches, belching of gas, constipation, or irregular bowels, feel flashes of heat alternating with chilly sensations or kindred symptoms, they point to derangement of your stomach, liver and kidneys, which the "Golden Medical Discovery" will correct more speedily and permanently than any other known agent. Contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients printed in plain English on wrapper.

The safe notice for substitution is to permit the dealer to make a little more profit. He gains; you lose. Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." Constipation causes and aggravates many serious diseases. It is thoroughly cured by Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. One a laxative; two or three are cathartic.
