HELD OVER

The examination of the two pickpockets which was held Saturday afternoon, developed that the case has sufficient evidence to hold it over to the next term of circuit court. A bond of three hundred dollars each was fixed, and as no money was forthcoming they will eat opium in the county jail for the next few weeks.

LAW INEFFECTIVE

(Scripps News Association)
Salem, July 2—Attorney General Crawford of Oregon today rendered his opinion that the anti-pass law passed by the last legislature and ratified by a popular vote was ineffective, inasmuch as it contained no enacting clause and advises the governor to declare it illegal.

MARRIED

COTNER—ENLOE—At six o'clock last evening Mr. Robert Cotner and Miss Elva Enloe united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Enloe, Rev. B. F. Meredith of the Methodist church performing the ceremony.

The parlor was elaborately decorated with native orange blossoms and roses. In a bay window a large bell, made of roses and orange blossoms was suspended, and for a tongue, was substituted an incandescent light. While Miss Floy Massee played Mendelssohn's wedding march, the groom, attended by Mr. A. W. Nelson advanced to the bay window, where they were met by the bride who was attended by Miss Ivy Long. Here with the ring ceremony, the young couple were united.

The bride wore a gown of white organdy trimmed with white valenciennes lace and the maid of honor was attired in white silk. All carried roses.

Following the services, the relatives and a few invited guests repaired to the dining room where light refreshments were served. Following the ceremony and refreshments, a large number of friends were received in an informal way.

The bride has been an employee of this office for some time and the groom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cotner, has worked in this office for many years.

The young people will make this their future home and the Observer extends the best wishes for their future happiness.

Married, by Justice of the Peace Hough Charles G. Burnett and Mabel Rethrock both of this city. The ceremony was a quiet affair and was enacted in the O. A. Coffin home with a few relatives and friends in attendance.

WOOD WOOD WOOD—Parties desiring to engage their winter supply of wood will please leave their order at Mr. Pollock's grocery store. I have 600 cords of good dry cord wood and of any kind. Respectfully
J. ANTHONY.

WANTED—Furnished rooms for light housekeeping. Enquire at this office.

FOR RENT—A good seven room house with bath in good location. Inquire of NEWLIN DRUG CO.

ERROTA

In Mr. Finn's article "The Veto Discussion" the year of his having been a candidate for District Attorney should read 1892 instead of 1902.

STORES WILL CLOSE.

Patrons will please take notice that the stores close at noon on the Fourth. The proprietors and clerks say that they want to celebrate along with the balance.

BORN

ANDREW—In this city Monday July 2, 1906, to Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Andrew, a daughter.

THOMAS—In this city June 26, 1906 to Mr. and Mrs. A. Thomas, a daughter.

THE COMFORT

Of the ladies is well taken care of by us. We have succeeded in our efforts to make our restaurant the best place for ladies to have their meals, and have tastefully arranged the different things to add attractiveness to the place, and make the surroundings pleasant.

OUR RESTAURANT

Provides meals that are beautiful and refreshing. The excellence of our cookery has been attested by the favorable comments of the many ladies that patronize us. If you would stop at our restaurant your nostrils would dilate at the pleasant odors our cookery sends forth. It would tickle your palate and after the meal you'd smack your lips and say, "That meal was very tasty."
