

The Little Folks' Teeth

Need attention as well as those of grownups, even if they are succeeded by a second set. Why should they suffer unnecessary pain and sow the seeds of indigestion and future dyspepsia when we can right matters at such small cost to you? Save them pain, and yourself worry and expense by bringing them around to us at first sign of tooth trouble are as common in India as are stomach and liver disorders with us. For the latter however there is a sure remedy: Electric Bitters; the great restoration medicine, of which S. A. Brown, of Bennington, S. C., says: "They restored my wife to perfect health, after years of suffering with dyspepsia and a chronically torpid liver." Electric Bitters cure chills, and fever, malaria, biliousness, lame back, kidney troubles and bladder disorders. Sold on guarantee by the Newlin Drug Co., price 50 cts.

Deadly Serpent Bites

Death From Lockjaw

never follows an injury dressed with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Its antiseptic and healing properties prevent blood poisoning. Chas. Oswald, merchant of Rensselaersville, N. Y., writes: "It cured Seth Burch of this place of the ugliest sore on his neck I ever saw." Cures cuts, wounds, burns and sores. 25 cts. at Newlin Drug Co.

MR. MOORE ADOPTS A NEW VOCATION

E. C. Moore, formerly ticket agent at the O. R. & N. office but lately resigned, has purchased a half interest in the Eastern Oregon Colonizing Company and from now on can be found in that office with Mr. J. Ireland.
Mr. Moore, is changing his vocation, leaves the railroad business after a long and trustful service lasting nearly twenty-two years. He has been connected with the O. R. & N. in La Grande for fourteen years. During this time he formed a pleasant acquaintance with practically every farmer and rancher in the valley. This will stand him well in hand now, in his new line of business, for combining his business ability and extensive acquaintance with Mr. Ireland's experience the firm will be materially strengthened.
A peculiar coincidence is that the present firm met each other while both were working at railroad work over twenty-two years ago. Mr. Ireland retiring in favor of his present business nearly four year ago.

HAS APPENDICITIS

Conductor F. L. Coykendall, of the Pendleton-Huntington passenger run on the O. R. & N., is now seriously ill at his home on South Main street with an attack of appendicitis. He suffered a slight attack several weeks ago and took a few days vacation, thinking it would not result seriously. He returned to work and yesterday was attacked again and now has a pronounced case of appendicitis although an operation will not be necessary at present. Conductor H. C. Grady of the La Grande freight division is on the run during his illness.—Pendleton E. O.

SEIZES A PORCUPINE

W. T. Cross is the proud possessor of a dead porcupine. This animal which is almost extinct in this valley, was killed by Mr. Cross on his farm about three miles from this city, and is an extra large specimen.

LA GRANDE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

PROF. DAY, PRINCIPAL.
MRS. DAY, ASSISTANT.

This is one of the best musical institutions in the state, and that people in this city and valley are beginning to discover the advantage of this school. The system is the latest and most practical, and includes all the latest discoveries in the art of teaching music. The school is divided into two departments; No. 1 is for beginners from 5 years or more and are taught the first three grades. Pupils come one hour each day. This is no kindergarten system but far superior. In No. 2 the grades are from 5 to 15. Here they graduate. Pupils take one or two lessons a week as they desire. No scholars will be permitted to remain in this school who do not study.
